Wamic News

Joe Wing has been suffering from an abscess on his hand the past week.

Vernie and Gerald Wing and Mrs. Emma Wing, Mrs. Alice Zumwalt and Mrs. Maggie Wing went to the Dufur orchard Tuesday and brought back a lot of apricotts.

Rev. G. Brown of The Dalles postponed his preaching here Sunday on account of the harvest work.

Mrs. Leah Serrurier and little Thelma are here from Grass Valley the past week.

The Driver Kennedy and Harvey thresher finished its run Saturday.

The company thresher started its run to day at the John Illingsworth fields. Mrs. Vesta Kennedy of Vancouver Washington is cooking for the crew.

Mrs. Agnes Chandler assisted with the cooking at the Kennedy and Harvey thrashing work.

Much excitement prevailed here when the Belvic Patison wheat field and the Frank Magill stubble burned. A heavy wind was blowing and it seemed as if the entire fields east of the county roads would be consumed in the rapidly sweeping flames. The heroic efforts of the men, a hundred or more which responded to the call for help succeeded in putting out the fire.

Barnard Welch arrived Friday from a ten days stay in Portland his father, Willie Welch accompanied him as far as the summit Bernad will return to the mountains in a few days where they will spend a month.

Mrs. Anna Packard is at Brookling with her son Willy Knighten who is suffering with eye trouble.

J. L. Illingsworth came out from The Dalles Friday. He brought a quantity of fine peaches from his orchard. He will harvest his alfalfa hay while here.

Clifford McCorkle of Juniper Flat visited Lester Crofoot Saturday night and Sunday.

John Jackson, Lewis Derthick Art Gustler and Miss From Kramer were here from Maupin Sunday.

Sunday was the hottest day of the season the thermometer registering 102 degrees.

A hail and rain storm fell here Sunday evening accompanied by lightening and thunder. The air was very hot and oppressive and lasted throughout the night.

Lightning struck a pine tree near the Joe Wing place Sunday evening setting fire to the dry grass and pine needles. The heavy rains extinguished the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doring Mr. Dorings mother and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brittain were up from Tygh Sunday visiting at the John Illingsworth home. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brittain went on to Smock to visit Mrs. M. Duncan.

Two soldiers came over from Dufur to assist with the Legion work at the Terry Jones funeral.

Chester Brittain, Wilber Wing and Gilbert Illingsworth went to the mountains to day.

Mrs. Pauline French and baby returned to The Dalles to day after spending a week with relatives here.

Prof. J. R. Ward will leave with his family to night for Dried, Washington, where they will make their future home.
They will take the one o'clock train at Maupin. Claud Roberts will take them to the station.

The largest crowd of people ever assembled at the cemetery here was that which came yesterday to witness the military funeral rites over Terry C. Jones who was brought from France where he died with pneumonia while in the service. The American Legion conducted the rites and Rev. Eads of Smock pronounced the religious ceremony. Terry Jones was highly esteemed by those who knew him and many sorrowing friends brought flow-

Two beautiful wreaths from the Legion here and at The Dalles were placed with tender emotion on the grave.

Mrs. N. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs.
Evans Parish, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bichsell and daughter Thelma of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs.
George Ledford of Friend were here to attend the funeral. They were guests for dinner at the C. S. McCorkle home.

Smock Items

Mrs. Alice (Blanchard) Ayres with her husband visited the home folks last week, returning to their home in Prineville Saturday.

Threshing is underway and wheat is a very good crop.

The rain and hail Sunday evening delayed work Monday morning but it laid the dust and was very refreshing. We have not heard of any serious damage by the hail.

Mrs. S. G. Ledford was called to Ashland by the serious illness of her father Mr. Mayfield who passed away Mond the 1st.
Her little son David accompanied his mother and was taken very ill and operated on for appendicitis. He is getting along fine and will soon be at home.

Wamic Girl Married

Miss Mary V. Miller, formerly of Smock was married to William A. Lehnher of Myrtle Point, August 6th at Coquill. Miss Miller is a very successful teacher and for the past five years she has been teaching in Oregon.
She is teaching a summer school here and last spring contracted for nine and one-half months at Tillamook where her parents live.

Mr. Lehnher is an ex-service man, having served two years in foreign service, on a submarine destroyer. He is a graduate from Astoria high school and attended a medical college before entering the Government service. He is a member of the Masonic lodge and very popular among the "younger set" of Myrtle Point.

The young couple will probably make their home near Myrtle
