Elsie Ferguson

Elsie Ferguson, often called "the aristocrat of the screen," had attained the position of stardom on the stage before she became a "movie" star. Since she was first won over to the films she returned to the stage but once, and then for a brief period.

HOW DO YOU SAY IT?
By C. N. LURIE
Common Errors in English and How to Avoid Them

"THE NEWS ARE."

THERE are certain words in English which are seemingly plural in meaning because they are plural in form, ending in "s." But they are really singular in meaning, and therefore they should take the singular verb, not the plural, although the proper use may seem incorrect. Among such words are "news," "politics," "economics." One should not say, for example, "The news concerning the war are good"; "politics, when properly conducted, are a good pursuit for a citizen"; "economics have been called the dismal science." In all of these cases, use the singular verb.

There are, however, certain words ending in "s" concerning which there is doubt. Grammarians differ frequently concerning the proper verb to be employed with such nouns as "headquarters" and "alms." "The general's headquarters were (or was) at Richmond," we may say; "the alms given to the poor family are (or is) not sufficient for its maintenance." "Means" may be either singular or plural, accordingly as the means is or are singular or plural.

How It Started

"THE WHITE FEATHER."

THIS phrase, which is now generally used to express cowardice or "chicken-heartedness" on the part of him to whom it is applied, originated in the days when gamecock fighting was a fashionable sport and the cocks were carefully bred. A gamecock of pure blood had universally dark plumage; but the cross-strains, which were not fighters, literally "showed the white feather"—white feathers appearing in their plumage.

They'll Give You the Facts.
"I don't like Dillworthy."
"Why not?"
"He thinks himself a little better than anybody else."
"Never let a man like that worry you. If you want proof to the contrary, just circulate a questionnaire among his neighbors."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

An Eye to Votes.
"Senator Sportsworthy has the qualities of a statesman."
"All but one."
"And what is that?"
"No matter how warm the debate grows, he never forgets that he holds an elective office."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A LINE O' CHEER.

By John Kendrick Bange.

AGENTS.

I F I'VE a Sneer, a Jeer, a Scoff,
I call in Mr. PUT-IT-OFF.
But when to Cheer I'd turn my
I send for Mr. DO-IT-NOW,
And these two Agents serve me well—
Far better than any pen can tell.
For PUT-IT-OFF never does Today
What overnight he can delay,
While DO-IT-NOW goes to the
As straight as may be, and with speed.
Whereby Today I have my Cheer,
And to Tomorrow leave the Sneer.

The Flavor Lasts

A delicious peppermint flavored sugar jacket around peppermint flavored chewing gum.

Will aid your appetite and digestion, polish your teeth and moisten your throat.

Product of Coconut Tree.
A 5-year-old coconut tree begins to yield 60 nuts a year. It is estimated that 1,000 nuts will make 25 gallons of coconut oil, which is used for soap making and candle making. The husks are useful also; they may be turned into cordage, brushes or matting.

Steam Deflects Lightning.
It would seem that a building 9,000 feet above the sea level should be protected by lightning rods, but the astronomical observatory at Mount Etna has not, and does not, need such protection. The observatory is near the summit of the volcano, and the stream of vapor constantly rising from the crater acts as a natural conductor, draining the electricity out of the clouds, so that lightning is seldom seen there.

Meanings of Dreams of Weapons.
To dream of a keen-edged sword signifies a disastrous quarrel. To receive a sword, honor and reputation. To see an armed man or body of soldiers, fatigue and nervousness. To exercise with weapons, flattering hopes not likely to be realized.

Garnets for Good Luck.
A garnet in your engagement ring is supposed to bring good luck. The ancient Greeks used to say that garnets gave loyalty and frankness to their possessors, and it was also believed that these stones kept lovers true to their vows.

Cuticura for Sore Hands.
Soak hands on retiring in the hot suds of Cuticura Soap, dry and rub in Cuticura Ointment. Remove surplus Ointment with tissue paper. This is only one of the things Cuticura will do for Soap, Ointment and Talcum are used for all toilet purposes.—Adv.

Tokens of Honesty.
At some of the London docks, when two men make a trade agreement, they exchange black beans as tokens of honesty. This is regarded as more binding than a written and signed contract.

Valuable Invention.
A Russian inventor claims to have perfected a motor that can safely utilize electricity drawn from storm clouds.

Set With Any Gem.
The episcopal ring was formerly set with any gem. It is, however, at the present time set with an amethyst or a sapphire.

Girl a "Miss" When Under Ten.
In England "Miss" was formerly applied only to females under ten years of age.

Clear Baby's Skin With Cuticura Soap and Talcum

Unique Inscription.
There is at the entrance of the church of San Salvador in the Spanish city of Oviedo a remarkable tomb, erected by a prince named Silo, with a curious Latin inscription which may be read 270 ways by beginning with the capital "S" in the center.

Deception Island.
Deception Island is one of the South Shetland Islands in the Antarctic ocean. It was formed from a volcano, the cone of which rises about 1,800 feet above sea level. On the southeast side the cone wall is broken by an opening about 600 feet wide, through which the sea has flooded the crater, forming a lake harbor, called Port Foster. It is approximately circular, about five miles in diameter and about 570 feet deep.

Jataka a Name in Buddhism.
Jataka is the technical name in Buddhist literature for a story of one or other of the previous births of Buddha. The word also is used for the name of a collection of 547 of such stories included in the Buddhist canon.

A Tea Rose Odor.
The oil of guayac wood, obtained from a South American tree closely related to the lignum-vitae, is used in the perfume industry for the purpose of producing a tea-rose odor, says the American Forestry Magazine.

Ancients Knew of Compressed Air.
The principle of compressed air was known to the ancients, having been experimented with by Hero, who lived from 264 to 221 B. C. The compressed air pump was invented by Otto von Guericke of Magdeburg, in 1654.

Bar Flappers From Streets.
Cape May, N. J.—City commissioners passed an ordinance forbidding the parade of bathers in bathing suits on the streets without suitable coverings. Older folks at the shore have complained to the police about "flappers" parading in suits, some of whom do an hour's errands before going to the beach.
The suits seen on the bathing grounds here this season are of the latest Parisian models.

NAMES GOLF 'CORRESPONDENT'
Divorce Complainant in New Jersey Charges Game Took Husband's Affection.
Newark, N. J.—The ancient and honorable game of golf is "correspondent" in a divorce suit filed by Mrs. Rachel B. Hayward of Montclair against Sterling P. Hayward.
In affidavits filed with Vice-Chancellor Fielder Mrs. Hayward declared the same took so much of her husband's leisure she scarcely ever saw him; that her lack of interest in golf caused him to be cruel to her and that he spent money in pursuit of his hobby that he should have spent maintaining her and their two children.
Mr. Hayward's answer denies golf is responsible for their marital difficulties, which he attributes to difficulties with Mrs. Hayward's relatives and to her discovery that he was not so wealthy as she had believed.
