Eugene.-Sixteen carloads of equip ment of the 91st aero squadron of the United States army, who have been located in Eugene during the past summer on forest fire patrol duty, Sunday were shipped to Crissey field at San Francisco, where the squadron will be located this winter.

Bend.-Paving was completed in Bend Saturday under existing contracts. The downtown section and two residence streets are now hard surfaced.

Salem - Prunes in the hands of growers in The Dalles district were cleaned up Saturday for the first time in 18 months according to reports received here. All fo the 1920 crop has been sold and the entire 1921 product has either been contracted for or delivered to purchasers.

Klamath Falls. - Decision as to whether sheepmen will be admitted to grazing privileges on the Modoc reserve is expected to result from investigation made last week by J. W. Nelson, national chief of grazing for the forest service. Mr. Nelson's decision is expected by the middle of October.

Salem.-The Spaulding Miami Lumber company will open its timber camp near the town of Grand Ronde Monday, according to announcement made by officials of the Charles K. Spaulding Logging company. Approximately 125 men will be employed in the camp and operations will continue throughout the winter.

Hood River.-E. B. Cloud, plant man ager of the Hood River Canning company, which last year began the marketing of Clark seedling strawberries for confectionery use, worked for seven years in perfecting the process that results in a strawberry firm enough to be impaled on the forks of chocolate dippers and plunged into fondant.

St. Helens.-Duck hunters in this vicinity met with fairly good luck on the opening day of the duck season and also Saturday. They reported that the lakes are frequented by many ducks, but they are very wild. Later on in the season when the ducks get real hungry the sportsmen believe they will be less wild and better shots will be the result.

St. Helens.-W. J. Merrick, who is in charge of the sawmill being built by the Western Spar company of Portland on their recently acquired property at Columbia City, said the mill would be in operation by November
