WORLD HAPPENINGS REVEALS WORLD WAR HERD NEW START MADE OF CURRENT WEEK

Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU lieutenant during the war and pro-

Events of Noted People, Governments and Pacific Northwest, and Other Things Worth Knowing.

John Boyd Dunlop, 81, known as died in Dublin Tuesday. His invention was first introduced in 1888.

A verdict in favor of the St. Louis Star was returned by a jury in circuit court in St. Louis Monday in a $100. 000 libel suit brought by Alexander P. MacAuley of Toronto, Ont.

emption to heads of families having men commanding that gun. net income of $5000 a year or less.

General managers of railroads centering in New York announced Tuesday that a "substantial percentage" of their employes has indicated they would remain at work notwithstanding the strike order.

Unemployment as a "world crisis" will be considered at the third international labor conference which convened at Geneva Tuesday, according to cabled advices received at the international fabor office.

don, Ore., by Mrs. E. A. Hartman and The Oddfellows hall was located in the theater building and suffered several thousand dollars damage.

Afficials Tuesday.

More than 1200 girls and women recently have applied for appointments as foreign missionaries, according to Miss Mabelle Rae McVelgh, candidate secretary of the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission society, of New York court in Chicago Tuesday by the gov-

Newspaper sporting pages attract ers of the newspapers, but only four favorite department.

The Cunard line announced Tuesday that the Aguitania, bringing Prime Minister Lloyd George and his official ampton November 3, two days ahead of regular schedule. The prime min-United States until December 3.

An indictment against Ralph H.

loss of life has been reported, but in to our prayers." dustry is at a standstill. The entire west coast of Florida is feeling the effects of the storm and is virtually concerned.

wines and spirituous liquors as medi- cals. cines. The amount of beer a physician He said the reports had been pubmay prescribe at one time for the use lished overseas. of the same person is limited to 216 gallons, equivalent to a case, but no arbitrary limit is placed upon the number of such prescriptions a physician tor Emmanuel of Italy, will be pro The $154 national banks reported a hint of paralysis and insensibility may write or the same person may posed as a candidate for the Hun-showed a reduction in resources of about her posture. He had never seen obtain within a given period.

General Pershing Puts Sergeant Wood fill at Head of Valor List.

Washington, D. C.-Sergeant Samuel Woodfill, in the opinion of General Pershing, deserves first place on the Brief Resume Most Important list of men who displayed outstanding With Radicalism Beaten, Pros-heroism in action in France. Until Monday little was known of the value of Sergeant Woodfill, who has been in the regular army for 20 years and who was commissioned a

On October 12, 1918, near Cunel France, during the Meuse-Argonne offensive, Sergeant Woodfill, then a Initiated Measures Also Seem Sure to lieutenant, cleaned out three machine gun nests, silencing the guns and killing 19 Germans, including one officer, and capturing three others.

moted to captain for heroism in action

Fortune smiled on Woodfill, who escaped without a serious wound, althe inventor of the pneumatic tire, though he faced four Germans at one vise the state government have been n its simple phases with little traditime, an unnamed number at another, five in a fourth engagement, finally killing two more with a pick.

These engagements followed each other in quick succession.

Woodfill had been sent out by his brigade commander to locate the en-rule. emy's line. He actually located it Without a record vote Tuesday the when he came across the first machine senate approved the house proposal gun nest, but could not be certain and 2086 in the state gave the following increasing from $2000 to $2500 the ex- pressed forward after killing the four a third machine gun nest and was ity, 9282. about to jump into the pit with drawn revolver when two other Germans turned their weapons upon him at from the western "slope" counties, the 'rom Dan's prone body, she would short range. Failing to kill them with his revolver. Woodfill seized a pick the swing away from Townleyism was le tried to attack either of them now, which was lying close by and brained both of the enemy.

How Woodfill managed to keep under cover so long was the subject of dependent ticket. much comment around the war department recently. He received the congressional medal of honor and was twice decorated by France and once The Grand theater, operated at Ban- by Montenegro. His case would not have been brought to public attention son, was burned Tuesday morning now, but for the fact that General early, causing a loss of about $20,000. Pershing recently completed a series for five years, has awakened from of the war records of the officers and soldlers who served during the war, face the costly reckoning. deciding that the "outstanding heroism Postponement of the opening meet of Sergeant Samuel Woodfill entitled ing of the international conference him to special mention" in the "report on armament and far eastern af of the commanding general of the first fairs until the morning of November army expeditionary forces on the or-12 was intimated as probable by high ganizations of the first army," which is soon to be submitted to Secretary of War Weeks.

PROCLAIMS THANKSGIVING

Washington, D. C .- President Harding issued a proclamation Monday night designating Thursday, November A suit in equity to enjoin the mid- 24, as a day of Thanksgiving, devotion west cement credit and statistical and prayer and urging the people to bureau from "keeping up an unlawful give thanks "for all that has been combination and conspiracy in re- rendered unto them" and to pray "for straint of interstate trade and com- a continuance of the divine fortune merce in cement" was filed in federal which has been showered so generously upon this nation."

The proclamation in part follows:

"That season has come when, alike more of the young women students at In pursuance of a devout people's time UNIONS CALL OFF Cambridge, Mass. honored custom and in grateful recogthan the women's pages. Ninety-six nition of favoring national fortunes, it per cent of the 600 students have been is proper that the president should found by a census to be regular read. summon the nation to a day of devoclaimed the women's pages as their stowed and of prayer for guidance in night when leaders of the switchmen, up the trail, he called down to her modes of life, that may deserve continuance of divine favor.

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace and the approach of a walkout and officials of the railparty to the armament conference at brought us into relations of amity Washington, would sail from South with all nations after a long period action. of struggle and turbulence. In thankfulness, therefore, we may well unite had authorized a strike. ister is scheduled to remain in the in the hope that providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have was unusually close, however, the fire- will often leap from the darkness afdone, the aims which have guided us, men particularly holding lengthy ar-Cameron, United States senator from the aspirations which have inspired guments before agreeing to cancella-Arizona, was returned by the federal us. We shall be prospered as we shall tion of the strike order, the labor that throbbed and gave him life and grand jury at the last term of the deserve prosperity, seeking not alone chieftains said. In some of the groups strength; but he knew that this word United States district court in Phoe for the material things, but for those the ballot was described as "the clos- had to be answered. And only actions, nix, Ariz, according to a brief entry of the spirit as well; earnestly trying est in history on a similar question." made in the minute book of the court to help others, asking before all else All of the differences were froned out All the voices of his body called to Tuesday. The indictment was on a the privilege of service. As we render by the different unions, however, and him to lie still, but the voices of the charge of perjury, according to the thanks anew for the exaltation which the final showdown found all of them spirit, those higher, nobler promptings came to us we may fittingly petition casting their ballots for "no strike." The business section of Tampa, Flor- that moderation and wisdom shall be ida, is practically flooded under three granted to rest upon all who are in feet of water as a result of the gulf authority in the tasks they must disstorm Tuesday, according to advices charge. Their hands will be steadied, over crippled transmission lines. No their purposes strengthened, in answer

Judge Denies Bias Story.

Dedham, Mass. - Judge Webster isolated insofar as communication is Thayer Monday night denounced as Morgan at the instance of Postmaster-As unexpected as a rainstorm in a at the trial of Nicolo Sacco and Bar- truck robbery last Monday, in which to her. She leaned forward, as if to desert, regulations permitting manu-tolomeo Vanzetti, convicted of a robbers escaped with $1,590,000 worth once drew it back. And then a single facture and use of beer for medical double murder during a highway rob of money and securities. purposes were issued Monday by the bery at South Braintree last year, was treasury department. The new rules instructed that it must convict them cover comprehensively the use of beer, because they were Italians and radi-

Prague.-Rumors are current that the Duke d'Aosta, cousin of King Vicgarian throne.

BY NORTH DAKOTA

pects Are Bright.

TOWNLEYISM BROKEN

Have Been Voted at Polls Together With Recall.

Fargo, N. D.-The measures to re passed at the state-wide recall election which also repudiated the Nonpartisan league. Now the future opens with what the people believe are bright prospects. They feel that they te has in regard to himself. He acare through with socialists and radical uires an ability to see just where he Returns collected at Fargo Saturday night from all but 258 precincts out of o do with the remarkable record that vote on governor: R. A. Nestos, independent, 106,148; Lynn J. Frazier, He had just killed five Germans in Non-partisan, 96,866. Nestos' major-

The early Nestos lead of 27,000 had been cut down by belated returns that she said. If he hadn't climbed Non-partisan league strongholds, but lave shot quickly and very straight. If apparent even in the west, and victory was assured not only for Mr. Nestos. but for his two associates on the inanciering of the league administration, fer to himself. And by now his lips also seemed certain to carry,

The state where the Non-partisan league was born, where it flourished and ruled with a high and lavish hand feverish dreams of state socialism to le's sick. Now go."

ernor, Sveinbjorn Johnson attorney be that." general and Joseph A. Kitchen commissioner of agriculture and labor. Important initiated laws appear to programme announced by the inde- or hurl it, or do any of the things most endents.

a state rural credits system like that Hearer. of South Dakota, limit state bond islaw for depositories of public funds fou'd want a man." and change the membership of the inand labor. All are independents.

Chicago,-The rail strike, scheduled him such an effective answer as this tion, of thanksgiving for blessings be- for October 30, was averted Friday little action of hers. And as he turned trainmen, conductors, engineers and I name—that most dreadful epithet firemen at a joint meeting adopted that foul tongues have always used to women held in greatest scorn. road telegraphers' organization an-nounced they would take similar consciousness. It had scarcely seemed

The vote in the individual unions

Mail Put Under Guard.

with sidecar attachments, driven by his neck. armed postal employes, were put into service Saturday to accompany wagons | ger !" loaded with valuable mail. The machines were ordered by Postmaster the pistol. I'll kill him-" "absolutely false" reports that the jury General Hays, because of the mail ing in the gray eyes that looked up

Bank Resources Decline.

Washington, D. C .- Aggregate re- trail. sources of the 30,815 banks in the country, amounting to $49,688,839,000, declined by $3,390,269,000 during the last fiscal year, according to a statement of bank reports for June 30, issued by the controller of the currency. $2,893,391,000.

The Voice of the Pack

By EDISON MARSHALL

CHAPTER III-Continued.

It is extremely doubtful if a plains aan would have possessed this knowldge. But a plainsman has not the mowledge of life itself that the mounaineer has simply because he does ot see it in the raw. And he has not salf the intimate knowledge of death, n absolute requisite of self-com osure. The mountaineer knows life ion or convention to blur the vision. Death is a very intimate acquaintance hat may be met in any snowdrift, on my rocky trall; and these conditions ere very deadly to any delusions that tands, and of course that means selfsossession. This quality had something he mountain men, such as that magdificent warrior from Tennessee, made n the late war.

Cranston knew exactly what Snowaird would do. Although of a higher order, she was a mountain creature, wen as himself. She meant exactly ter finger would press back before he buld blink an eye, and she wouldn't veep any hysterical tears over his lead body. If he kept his distance, the wouldn't shoot at all. He meant Initiated measures, backed by the o keep his distance. But he did know independents, curbing the frenzied fin- hat he could insult her without danind acquired their old curl of scorn.

"I'll go, Snowbird," he said. "I'll cave you with your sissy. But I guess you saw what I did to him-in two ninutes."

"I saw. But you must remember

"If he's sick, let him stay in bed-R. A. Nestos has been elected gov- and have a wet nurse. Maybe you can

The lids drooped halfway over her gray eyes, and the slim finger curled nore tightly about the trigger. have carried, carrying out part of the wild. She didn't whisper it, or hiss it, people are supposed to do in moments These laws, if passed, will end up of violent emotion. She simply said the Bank of North Dakota, establish t, and her meaning was all the

"But you can't. And I'll pound that sues to $7,500,000, except as secured by nilk-sop of yours to a jelly every time real estate mortgages, restore the old I see him. I'd think, Snowbird, that

He started up the trail; and then dustrial commission. The new commission is to consist of John Steen, the told him. "He'll prove it some state treasurer; Thomas Hall, secre-iny." Then her arm went about Dan's tary of state; and Joseph A. Kitchen, neck and lifted his head upon her the new commissioner of agriculture breast; and in Cranston's plain sight, she bent and kissed him, softly, on the lips.

Cranston's answer was an oath. It fripped from his lips, more poisonous, nore malicious than the venom of a make. His features seemed to tighten, the dark lips drew away from his No words could have made real, rather just an incident in a bliss These were the only unions which ful dream. But the word called down the trail shot out clear and vivid from the silence, just as a physician's face ter the anesthesia. Something infinitely warm and tender was holding him not other words, could be its payment from which no man, to the glory of the breed from which he sprung, can ever quite escape, were stronger yet, He tugged upward, straining. But he New York. - Fifteen motorcycles didn't even have the strength to break the hold that the soft arm had about

"Oh, if I could only pull the trig "If I could she was crying.

"Let me," he pleaded. "Give me And he would. There was no flinch sob caught at her throat. An instant later they heard Cranston's laughter as he vanished around the turn of the

For long minutes the two of them were still. The girl still held the man's head upon her breast. The pistol had nervous hand plucked strangely at the leaves of a mountain flower. To Dan's eyes, there was something trancelike, her eyes like this. The light that he had always beheld in them had vanished. Their utter darkness startled

He sat up straight, and her arm that had been about his neck felt at her side. He took her hand firmly in his, and their eyes met.

"We must go home, Snowbird," he told her simply. "I'm not so badly burt but that I can make it."

She nodded; but otherwise scarcely seemed to hear. Her eyes still flowed with darkness. And then, before his own eyes, their dark pupils began to The hand he held filled and throbbed with life, and the fingers closed around his. She leaned toward

"Listen, Dan," she said quickly. "You heard-didn't you-the last thing that he said?"

"I couldn't help but hear, Snow-

Her other hand sought for his, "Then if you heard-payment must be made. You see what I mean, Dan. Maybe you can't see, knowing the girls that live on the plains. You were the cause of his saying it, and you must answer-"

It seemer to Dan that some stern code of the hills, unwritten except in the hearts of their children, inexorable as night, was speaking through her lips. This was no personal thing. In some dim, half-understood way, it went back to the basic code of life.

"People must fight their own fights. up here," she told him. "The laws of the courts that the plains people can appeal to are all too far away. There's no one that can do it, except you. Not my father. My father can't fight your battles here, if your honor is going to stand. It's up to you, Dan. You can't pretend that you didn't hear hlm. Such as you are, weak and sick to be beaten to a pulp in two minutes. you alone will have to make him answer for it. I came to your ald-and now you must come to mine." Her fingers no longer clasped his. Strength had come back to him, and his fingers closed down until the blood went out of hers, but she was wholly unconscious of the pain. In reality, she was conscious of nothing excep the growing flame in his face. It held her eves in passionate fascination. His pupils were contracting to little bright dots in the gray Irises. The Jaw was setting, as she had never seen it be-

"Do you think, Snowbird, that you'd even have to ask me?" he demanded "Don't you think I understand? And it won't be in your defense-only my own duty."

"But he is so strong-and you are so weak-"

"I won't be so weak forever. I never really cared much about living before. I'll try now, and you'll see-oh. Snowbird, wait and trust me: I understand everything. It's my own fight-when you kissed me, and be cried down that word in anger and jealousy, it put the whole thing on me, No one else can make him answer; no one else has the right. It's my honor, no one else's, that stands or falls " He lifted her hand to his lips and kissed it again and again. And for the first time he saw the tears gathering in her dark eyes. "But you fought here, didn't you, Dan?" she asked with painful slowness, "You didn't put up your arms—or try to run away? I didn't come till he had you done, so I didn't see." She looked at him as if her whole joy of life hung on his answer.

"Fought! I would have fought till I dled! But that isn't enough, Snowbird. It isn't enough just to fight, in a case like this. A man's got to win! I would have died if you hadn't come, And that's another debt that I have to pay—only that debt I owe to you." She nodded slowly. The lives of the mountain men are not saved by their women without incurring obliga-She attempted no barren deplais. She made no effort to pretend he had not incurred a tremendous debt when she had come with her pistol. It was an unavoidable fact. A life for life is the code of the mountains.

Copyright, 1920, by Little, Brown & Co.

"Two things I must do before I can ever dare to die," he told her soberly. "One of them is to pay you; the other is to pay Cranston for the thing he sald. Maybe the chance will never come for the first of the two; only I'll pray that it will. Maybe it would be kinder to you to pray that it wouldn't; yet I pray that it will! Maybe I can pay that debt only by being always ready, always watching for a chance to save you from any danger, always trying to protect you. You didn't ome in time to see the fight I made. Besides-I lost, and little else matters. And that debt to you can't be paid until sometime I fight again-for you-and win." He gasped from his weakness, but went on bravely. "I'll never be able to feel at peace, Snowbird, until I'm tested in the fire before your eyes! I want to show you the things Cranston said of me are not true-that my courage will stand the test.

"It wouldn't be the same, perhaps, with an Eastern girl. Other things matter in the valleys. But I see how It is here; that there is only one standard for men and by that standard they rise or fall. Things in the mountains are down to the essen-

He paused and struggled for strength to continue, "And I know what you said to him," he went on, "Half-unconscious as I was, I remember every word. Each word just seems to burn into me, Snowbird, and I'll make every one of them good. You said I am a better man than he, and sometime it would be proved-and it's the truth! Maybe in a month, maybe in a year. I'm not going to die from this malady of mine now, Snowbird, I've got too much to live for-too many debts to pay. In the end, I'll prove your words to him."

His eyes grew earnest, and the hard fire went out of them, "It's almost as if you were a queen, a real queen of some great kingdom," he told her, tremulous with a great awe that was stealing over him, as a mist steals over water. "And because I had kissed your fingers, for ever and ever I was your subject, living only to fight your fights-maybe with a dream in the end to kiss your fingers again. When you bent and kissed me on that hillside-for him to see-it was the same: that I was sworn to you, and nothing mattered in my life except the service and love I could give you. And it's more than you ever dream, Snowbird It's all yours, for your battles and your happiness.

The great pines were slient above them, shadowed and dark. Perhaps they were listening to an age-old story, those yows of service and selfgained worth by which the race has struggled upward from the darkness.

"But I kissed you-once before," she reminded him. The voice was just a whisper, hardly louder than the stir of the leaves in the wind.

"But that kiss didn't count," he told her. "It wasn't at all the same. loved you then, I think, but it didn't mean what it did today."

"And what-" she leaned toward him, her eyes full on his, "does it mean now?" "All that's worth while in life, all that matters when everything is said that can be said, and all is done that can be done. And it means, please God, when the debts are paid, that I may have such a kiss again."

"Not until then," she told him, whispering. "Until then, I make outh that I won't even ask it, or receive it if you should give it. It goes too deep, dearest-and it means too much." This was their pact. Not until the debts were paid and her word made good would those lips be his again. There was no need for further words. Both of them knew. In the skies, the gray clouds were gathering swiftly, as always in the mountains. The raindrops were falling one and one, over the forest. The summer was done, and fall had come in earnest.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Ancient History.

Ancient history begins with the first recorded history and extends to the fall of the Roman empire, 476 A. D., including all the historical events included in the Bible. The prehistoric period is the period about which pothing is known, either from the Bible or other sources. It has no limits, and scientists, historians and archaeologists give varying opinions as to its probable extent.

Has 14,000,000 Readers.

The British museum library has more than 14,000,000 recorded readers annually and is the largest reference library in the world.

Butter is prime when it is fresh; but man's youthful freshness disappears when he reaches his prime.