The Home Merchant

Mid pleasures and palaces though I may wend, I find the home merchant a much-valued friend. . . . The mail-order catalogue woos me in vain, for to pay without-seeing may bring me a pain. . . . The home merchant credits till pay-day arrives,— he knows all the whims of his friends and their wives. His overalls wear like the buck-skin of old,—his buttons ain't brass, if he tells you they're gold! Of every community he is a part, and even the kids know the path to his heart. He boosts for the chapel, the lodge and the school,— "Community uplift" is ever his rule. . . . And even the football and basketball teams, look kindly on him, in their athletic dreams. . . . I'd rather have him at my elbow each day, than to deal with a shark, many furlongs away. . . . Let's make the thing mutual, and stand by our friend,—there's no place like home, for the money we spend!
