

Antelope Chautauqua

The Chautauqua season of 1922 is an important one in the history of the Ellison-White Lyceum and Chautauqua Association as it is the Tenth Anniversary of the establishing of their Chautauqua business in the West. To build a program which would fittingly celebrate this happy event was evidently in the minds of the Ellison-White Management when the program for the coming season was arranged. The dates for the Antelope Chautauqua have been definitely set for June 29 to July 3.

The Loren Bates Company and the Patricia Trio are two musical entertainment companies which will meet with popular favor. Loren Bates is a clever young characterist who specializes in "wig and grease paint" work. Miss Leatha Shriber, soprano, and Miss Helen Smith, pianist, are capable assisting artists to Mr. Bates. The Patricia Trio is built around Miss Patricia Hale, dramatic soprano and possessor of a glorious voice, whose work in the east has attracted wide attention.

The Junior Chautauqua, as usual, will be a big feature, and already there is considerable interest manifested among the children of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henneghan left Wednesday afternoon for a 10 days outing. They will visit at Heppener, Spokane, Goldendale and Centralia and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Knowles of Dufur, and Mrs. Alice Batty.

Mrs. C. F. Butler from Corvallis is here visiting her son F. C. Butler.

A Rousing Fourth

All Wasco County is invited to celebrate July 3 and 4 at Tygh Valley. There will be two days of real fun or in other words forty-eight hours of rest or riot, and people will be able to enjoy a real old fashioned Fourth of July with plenty of fire-works, dancing, music, sports, oratory and other things.

Two baseball games are scheduled. They will be between Wasco and Dufur, and Antelope and Maupin.

A display of fireworks will be one of the features at night and a 16-piece orchestra will play for the dancing in the open air pavilion. Splendid camping facilities can be easily obtained for the out of town visitors, as Tygh Valley is noted for its beautiful camping grounds.

A concession has been granted to C. B. Dahl for a 10-round boxing bout and preliminaries.

K. L. Hauser will be marshal of the day and no disorderly conduct will be allowed.

The committees in charge are as follows: music, H. F. Woodcock, advertising, Bates Shattuck entertainment, N. G. Hedin; grounds, H. A. Müller; baseball, Willis Norval; races and sports, J. C. Thrall; decorations, J. H. Fitzpatrick; fireworks, R. E. Wilson; concessions, H. L. Morris of Maupin.

Tygh Valley will hang out a welcome sign to all Wasco county on these two days and hundreds are expected to attend.

Bates Shattuck, F. C. Butler and H. Kaiser have added a concrete sidewalk which greatly improves the looks of the town. Lets keep the good work going.
