Celebration Big Success

The big all Wasco county celebration at Tygh Valley drew many hundreds of people. There was entertainment of many kinds, the program lasting for two days, both the 3rd and 4th. The baseball was furnished by teams from Wasco, Dufur, Maupin and Antelope and remarkable games were staged. Monday Dufur won over Wasco by a large margin. Tuesdays game between Grass Valley and our Maupin boys was hotly contested and won by Grass Valley with a score of 12 to 14. Orchestra, Oratory, dancing, racing and many athletic events had their places on the program. A ten-round boxing bout proved a big attraction. Various concessions furnished refreshments and entertainment Plyer was there with his picture. The irregular blasts of
