Embellishments Play an Important Part in the Wardrobe of All
Well Dressed Women.
Dress accessories play an increasingly important part every season in a well dressed woman's wardrobe. The simplest suit or dress may be made smart and distinctive if the right accessories are worn with it, and certainly very charming things are available this spring. Any of these sets may be purchased in the shops, or they may be made at home with comparatively trifling expenditure of time and money.
A very smart vestee with cuffs to match is of finely corded white pique embroidered in white or color, a large ornamental pearl button serving as a fastening as well as trimming for vest and cuffs. This set would be smart with a dark tailored suit or with a frook of the redingote type.
Another smartly made set consists of puritan collar and novel cuffs of heavy linen, finished with a band of

SEEKS WOMEN AS DETECTIVES

Police Commissioner of New York
Asks Appropriation to Hire Twenty-Five Crime Experts.
New York.—Police Commissioner Enright issued a statement regarding his request to the board of estimate for $82,500 for the employment of 25
"specialists in designated channels of crime," which was referred to a special committee.

He stated that in the event the money was granted for the employment of the specialists from July 1 at a salary of $5,000 a year each, he would endeavor to obtain women as well as men for the jobs.
He said that $3,000 a year for such work was not excessive and was $7,000 a year less than is paid to crime specialists by Scotland Yard.

Two men passed each other in Washington street.
"Hello, Green," said one.
"How are you, White?" said the other.
And they both are black.

WHAT A WOMAN DID

IT SEEMS probable that cancer, one of the most deadly of the enemies of mankind, will soon be conquered by the use of radium.
Since the beginning of time this element has existed in nature. For the last score or more of years the presence of some unseen but powerful force has been suspected. Scientists sought to discover what it was, but sought in vain, till a quiet little Polish woman, after years of laborious experiment, discovered it.
That a woman should have made this discovery—one of the most notable in all history—is highly important.
It disproves forever the old contention that there is any difference between the brain of a man and that of a woman.
The highest concentration, the greatest reasoning power, the most indomitable determination were required for the years of work which had to be done before this discovery could be made.
A man stumbles on a gold mine or a diamond deposit by accident. But to find a metal which exists in the most minute quantities, and which must be extracted by infinite pains from the surrounding elements, has to be located first, and laboriously separated afterward.
Countless experiments entered into Mme. Curie's work, and only a remarkable human being could have brought it to a successful conclusion.
Much is yet to be done before the power of radium over cancer can be thoroughly tested.
But this can be left to others, as the consolidation of a captured position in war can be left to subordinates after a brilliant general has won an engagement.
Mme. Curie has set an example, not only for her own sex, but for all the searchers for truth in the world.
Her achievement is an inspiration, and probably to the end of time, will be an inspiration to the whole world.

BRACE UP

WHEN you're feeling rather blue
And the slodding's hard for you;
When your schemes go up the spout
And you're feeling down and out;
When you've shot and scored a miss—
Brace up and remember this:
Those who win are those who try.
So brace up and don't say die.
Swell your chest and try again;
Grit your teeth and smile at pain.
Tackle trouble with a laugh
And you'll cut the dose in half.
Look the world square in the eye;
Buck the line and don't say die,
Laying down is all the shame—
Sit straight up and play the game.
Don't dodge trouble—if you do
It will doubly trouble you.
Meet each task with grit and vim,
Do the square thing, sink or swim.
If you see hard luck draw nigh
Laugh again and don't say die.
Keep your face turned to the light,
Do your best and you're all right.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS
"BRICK"

LIKE many other expressions which, at first glance, appear to belong to the slang of a very recent period, "He's a brick" dates back to the days of ancient history, Plutarch being authority for the statement that Lycurgus used it in connection with the defense of Sparta.
The story goes that Lycurgus, being a man of few words, was asked whether Sparta should be inclosed with walls, and replied: "That city is well fortified which has a wall of men instead of brick."
Another historical allusion of the same nature was made when an ambassador from Epirus, on a diplomatic mission, was shown by the king of Sparta over his capital. The ambassador was amazed to see that the city was apparently unfortified and remarked about the matter.
"Indeed," replied the king. "That cannot not have looked carefully. Come with me tomorrow and I will show you the walls of Sparta."
On the following morning the king led his guest out upon the plains, where his army was drawn up in full battle force. There, pointing proudly to the solid battalions of armed men, he exclaimed: "Thou beholdest the walls of Sparta—every man of them a brick!"
The antiquity of the expression in English may be gathered from the fact that the Ingoldsby Legends contain the following couplet:
"In brief, I don't stick to declare Father Dick,
So they called him for short, was a regular brick."

White Spots on Wood.

The white spots left on the wood-work after it is washed are caused by the use of soap which is too strong. In cleaning woodwork, use luke-warm water and milk, soap suds or cleaning powder. These leave no spots and are good dirt removers.

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings."—Mrs. B. LANSER, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble. Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

To Tell Cow's Age.

It is more difficult to determine the age of a cow than a horse, say the livestock men at the State College at Ithaca, N. Y. They agree that some estimate of a cow's age may be made from her teeth and horns. The number of "annual rings" on the horns, plus two, for example, usually gives the animal's age, but remembering that the pairs of permanent teeth come nine months apart will help to verify it.

Astonishing Indeed.

Kenneth recently sent his Grandmother Gray the following birthday greeting on that lady's eightieth birthday. Kenneth was born on the same month, so this is what he wrote: "Dear Grandma: I was born the day before you were, Kenneth."
