

Brief Resume-Most Important Daily News Items.

COMPILED FOR YOU

Events of Noted People, Governments and Pacific Northwest, and Other Things Worth Knowing.

A reduction of $1,914,000,000 in the public debt during the fiscal year ended June 30, and a reduction of $175,-000,000 in the debt during the month of June, was announced Monday by the treasury.

W. A. White, editor of the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette, and nationally famous defender of all kinds of dogs, offered a prize to the boy with the Francisco, who had been employed as most dogs in the Fourth of July parade.

Lena Walton, a famous character of with Charles D. Lane, the mining operator of California and Alaska, over the Ophir creek mines, died in Nome Sunday.

Howard and Homer Fisher are twins. Both are drug clerks. Both are in jail in Los Angeles. Both are charged with the illegal sale of liquor. "They are as much alike as two pints," said the prohibition enforcement officers who arrested them.

Governor Blaine of Wisconsin announced in an address in Superior Tuesday that he would extend executive elemency to every man in Wisconsin prisons "who can trace his plight, directly or indirectly, to causes arising out of the service to his country."

James Alexander Richardson, 85 years old on his last birthday, and Misa Christina Stafford, who refused to give her age, obtained a license to marry in Vancouver, Wash., Monday. Richardson gave his occupation as boatman. His first wife died several many to shelter. Years ago.

Probability of a reconciliation and peaceful settlement of their differences by Sun Yat Sen, ex-president of the South China republic, and Chen Chiung Ming, the military leader who deposed him, was reported to be past two weeks.

Three mutilated mail pouches containing hundreds of opened letters, comprising part of the loot obtained by Roy Gardner, notorious bandit, in the Maricopa, Ariz, mail car robbery

Sacramento, Cal.-The Southern Pacific water tank at Newcastle, Placer county, 30 miles from Sacramento. was dynamited Monday night shortly Half Dozen States Assemble after 9 o'clock, according to word sent to Sheriff Gum at Roseville.

According to the story, five men drove up to the tank in an automo bile, planted the lighted charge beneath the tank and drove guickly away in the direction of Lincoln.

Roseville, Cal.-An employe of the Pacific Fruit Express company was shot here at 10 o'clock as he was working on the icing platform of the fruit company. He was rushed to the Southern Pacific emergency hospital. Reports were conflicting as to who did the shooting. Strikers were re ported to be stationed at points of vantage overlooking the loading plat- men marked the close of the eighth form. They were said to be armed. At the hospital the man was recognized as William Westlake, 21, of San a guard by the express company. Westlake, according to information given out by the Southern Pacific ofthe days of the gold rush to Nome and ficials, was the target for a fusillade Council City, who figured in litigation of 17 shots fired in rapid succession from some distance.

> Bloomington, Ill .-- Three shots were fired at state troops guarding the Chicago & Alton shops shortly after midnight Monday. No trace of the person shooting was found.

> Twenty-five men congrgated at a strikers' picket post in front of a gro cery store at the north end of the shops were ordered to disperse and a machine gun was set up to cover the strike pickets. Lieutenant-Colonel Charles Neuman ordered the sentry details doubled and posted additional machine gun units at vantage points.

A sentry reported to the lieutenantcolonel that the strike pickets had warned two women who passed the store "to get out of the way, for the fireworks are about to start." More than 2000 lined the "dead line" on the west and north sides of the shops and another 500 gathered at the depot. Rain which began failing shortly before 10 o'clock drove Sentries pacing their posts were jostled and jeered by the crowd. At the main west side entrance to the shop 800 men, women and children formed along the sentry line and as fast as the guardsmen passed they crowded across the line. Guns with brighter than at any time during the fixed bayonets were brought into play time and again, held horizontally, to force the jeering throng back.

Powder Blast Kills One.

Tacoma, Wash .-- Samuel W. Hanna 32, was killed instantly Monday afterlast November, have been found, it noon in an explosion at the Dupont sportation and thus break the strike.

National Guards.

ILLINOIS BOY IS SHOT

Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Obtains Order Restraining Strikers Picketing Shops.

Chicago .- The calling out of troops in Illinois, the assembling of soldiers in half a dozen states and the intervention of the federal courts in the nation-wide strike of railway shopday of the walkout Saturday night.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad obtained a federal injunction here restraining picketing at the Aurora shops, while earlier in the day an injunction was issued at New Orleans restraining strikers from interfering with trains on the Southern Pacific and at Council Bluffs, Iowa, the Burlington obtained a temporary restraining order directed against striking shopmen in southern Iowa. A half dozen other railroads were expected to follow the lead of the Burlington here. Department of justice officials at Washington were investigating reports that strike disorders were interfering with the mails.

Lieutenant-Governor Sterling of Illinois ordered troops to Clinton, where an outbreak was threatened following a clash between Illinois Central guards and strike sympathizers in which a boy was killed and two men, one a striker, were injured.

One bright ray appeared through the threatening strike clouds when D. W. Helt, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen, announced that he would withhold strike orders to 14,000 signal men pending the preparation and submission of a programme to the United States railroad labor board.

Mr. Helt's announcement was made following an all-day conference with W. L. McMenimen, labor member of the board. This was the second time within a week that members of the board have intervened to stop an addition to the strikers' ranks, walkout of 400,000 maintenance of way men having been postponed in this manner a few days ago.

With B. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts, and the labor board each standing firm in the attitude that peace overtures must come from the other. the railroads were girding for the second week of the struggle, determined to maintain uninterrupted tranus.

lovely, too.)

Well, first we got into Boston at four o'clock Monday afternoon, and there was Grandpa Desmond to meet with grayish hair and merry eyes like

Mother's, only his are behind glasses.

At the station he just kissed Mother and me and said he was glad to see us and led us to the place where Peter was waiting with the car. (Peter drives Grandpa's automobile, and he's fast and very lively all the way home and Mother laughed quite a lot. But

In the hall she cried a little, and Gfandpa patted her shoulder, and said,

"There, there !" and told her how glad he was to get his little girl back, and that they were going to be very happy

now and forget the past. And Mothe snid, yes, yes, indeed, she knew she was; and she was so glad to be there.

and that everything was going to be just the same, wasn't it? Only-then all of a sudden she looked over at me course, things couldn't be "just the same," she choked, hurrying over to me and putting both arms around me

Then Grandpa came and hugged us both, and patted us, and said, "There there !" and pulled off his glasses and

But it wasn't only a minute or two before Mother was laughing again, and saying, "Nonsense!" and "The idea!"

wiped them very fast and very hard.

and crying harder than ever.

01

and began to cry again-only,

Mother and Grandpa talked very

He's lovely-tall and dignified.

IN BOSTON SYNOPSIB.-In a preface Mary Marie explains her apparent "dou-ble personality" and just why is a "cross-current and a contradic-tion": she also tells her reasons for writing the diary-later to be a novel. The diary is commenced to a novel. The diary is commenced to novel. The diary is component to novel. The diary is the same right. Her name is a compromise; her mother wante to a diary different. I not have on the diary different. I not have on the diary different from those of her which howerhold seemed a transpond to the child and how her far her and mother drifted spati-toring disting expectable." Hyper-mother is to her the seemed 'out work' where the "perfectly all right and provid to her the speciable." Hyper-mother is to her unaccountable be-navior. By the court's discrete the inverte the the court's discrete the inverte the security discrete the inverte the security discrete the inverte the the diary and the provide to the security discrete the inverte the security discre havior. By the court's decree the child is to spend six months of the year with her mother and six months with her father. Boston is Mother's home.

CHAPTER III-Continued. -5-

Everything seems awfully queer. Maybe because Father Isn't here, for one thing. He wrote very polite and nsked us to come to get our things. and he said he was going to New York on business for several days, so Mother need not fear he should annoy her with his presence. Then, another thing. Mother's queer. This morning she was singing away at the top of her voice and running all over the house picking up things she wanted; and seemed so happy. But this afternoon I found her down on the floor in the library crying as if her heart would break, with her head in Father's big chair before the fireplace. But she Jumped up the minute I came in and said, no, no, she didn't want anything. She was just tired; that's all. And when I asked her if she was sorry, after all, that she was going to Boston to live, she said, no, no, no, indeed, she guessed she wasn't. She was just ns glad as glad could be that she was going only she wished Monday would gone. And that's all. It's a Saturday now, really, but in the play, I mean), and I guess it was some more of that in-compatibility stuff. Anyhow, as they began to talk more and more, Mother began to fidget, and pretty soon I saw she was gathering up our things; and the minute the curtain went down after the first act, she says:

"Come, dear, we're going home. Itit isn't very warm here."

As if I didn't know what she was really leaving for! Do old folks honestly think they are fooling us all the time, I wonder? But even if I hadn't known then, I'd have known it later, for that evening I heard Mother and Aunt Hattle talking in the library. No, I didn't listen. I heard. And that's a very different matter. You listen when you mean to, and that's sneaking. You hear when you can't help yourself, and that you can't be blamed for. Sometimes it's your good luck, and sometimes it's your bad uck-just according to what you hear ! Well, I was in the window-seat in the library reading when Mother and Aunt Hattle came in; and Mother was saying:

"Of course I came out! Do you suppose I'd have had that child see that play, after I realized what it was? As if she hasn't had enough of such wretched stuff already in her short life! Oh, Hattle, Hattle, I want that child to laugh, to sing, to fairly tingle with the joy of living every minute that she is with me. I know so well what she has had, and what she will have-in that-tomb. You know in six months she goes back-

Mother saw me then, I know; for she stopped right off short, and after a moment began to talk of something else, very fast. And pretty quick th went out into the hall again.

Dear little Mother! Bless her old heart! Isn't she the ducky dear to want me to have all the good times possible now so as to make up for the six months I've got to be with Father? You see, she knows what it is to live with Father even better than I do.

But I know now why I've been having such a perfectly beautiful time all this week, and why Mother has been filling every minute so full of fun and good times. Why, even when we're at home here, she's always hunting up little Lester and getting him to have a romp with us. But of course next week I've got to go to school, and it can't be guite so jolly then. Well, I guess that's all for this time.

ABOUT A MONTH LATER

I didn't make a chapter of that last. It wasn't long enough. And, really, I don't know as I've got much to add to it now. There's nothing much happened.

I go to school now, and don't have so much time for fun. School's pretty good, and there are two or three girls 'most as nice as the ones at Anderson-ville. But not quite. Out of school Mother keeps things just as lively as ever, and we have beautiful times. Mother is having a lovely time with her own friends, too. Seems as if there is always some one here when I get ome, and lots of times there are teas and parties, and people to dinner.

. >

There are gentlemen, too. I suppose one of them will be Mother's lover by and by; but of course I don't know which one yet. I'm awfully interested in them, though. And of course it's perfectly natural that I should be. Wouldn't you be interested in the man that was going to be your new father? Well, I just guess you would! Anybody would.

There are guite a lot of them, and they're all different. They'd make very-different kinds of fathers, I'm sure,

and I'm afraid I wouldn't like some of them. But, after all, it's Mother that ought to settle which to have-not me. She's the one to be pleased.

Twould be such a pity to have to change again. Though she could, of course, same as she did Father, I sup-

As I said, they're all different. There are only two that are anywhere near alike, and they aren't guite the same, for one's a lawyer and the other's in a bank. But they both carry canes and wear tall slik hats, and part their hair in the middle, and look at you through the kind of big round eyeglasses with dark rims that would make you look awfully homely if they didn't make you look so stylish. But I don't think Mother cares very much for either the lawyer or the bank man.

and I'm glad. I wouldn't like to live with those glasses every day, even if they are stylish. I'd much rather have

Then there's the man that paints pictures. He's tall and slim and wears queer ties and long hair. He's always tanding back and looking at things

Father's kind.

was announced by the postoffice in spector's office at Phoenix, Ariz.

A freight maying of from $15 to $25 a car for sheep producers has been effected by the decision of the interstate commerce commission reducing the weight for minimum cars 36 feet and 7 inches in length from 22,000 pounds to 18,000 pounds, the national livestock exchange announced Tuesday.

Miss Alice Robertson, Oklahoma representative in congress, standing on the site where the first missionary school in the old Indian country was established and her mother, a teacher in that school, met her father, opened her campaign at Coweta, Okia., July 4 for the republican nomination to represent her district.

The French chamber of deputies government to decree the utilization of a greater percentage of wheat in flour and the addition of substitutes in preparation for the expected short age in this year's wheat crop. The crop is variously estimated at 50,000,-000 to 100,000,000 bushels short of re- letic suits. quirements.

"The "Henry Ford for president" movement spread to Chicago Monday and opened headquarters in Michigan avenue. W. F. Kelley of the American Mica company, who is in charge of the organization here, said 5000 circulars were being sent out in Chicago "to feel out the sentiment." "There seems to be a strong undercurrent," he added.

The six railway shop crafts unions which went on strike Saturday were outlawed by the United States labor board Monday. In a formal resolution the board declared that the unions, by their action, forfeited all rights before the board as railway of shopmon taking the striking men's the board.

de Nemours powder factory at Du pont, Wash, near here, which rocked South Tacoma and other nearby dis tricts. No cause for the explosion could be given by factory officials.

The accident occurred in gelatin house No. 1, where it is estimated about 600 pounds of nitroglycerin was stored awaiting mixing. George Mc Cune, oil trucker, had just delivered a load of oil and was returning to the oil storehouse with his rubber-tired truck when the explosion took place.

Four Girl Bathers Jailed.

Chicago .- Four young women, romping on Chicago's Oak-street bathing beach Sunday in one-piece bathing suits, were ordered from the beach by a police woman. They declined to interrupt their revels in the sand and a big patrol wagon came and took them Tuesday passed a law authorizing the away. Monday the quartet filed suit for an injunction against the city, contending that the upper half of their suits was no more decollete than that of the usual evening gowns and that the lower half conformed with all the established requirements of 1922 ath

Chicago's Drouth Ended.

Chicago .- Chicago's 43-day drouth was ended early Monday, when a heavy rain struck all parts of the city

Some damage was caused by a high wind which accompanied the downpour. The rain followed the hottest day of the summer, the mercury registering $2 degrees. June was the driest

Inch.

. Unfilled Steel Orders Increase.

New York-The monthly tonnage report of the United States Steel cor employes and that new organizations poration, made public Monday, showed 5.635.531 tons of unfilled orders on taled 5,254,228,

British Gold Received.

New York .-- Gold bars, valued at $2,-500,000, arrived here on the steamship Berengaria Saturday consigned to J. P. Morgan & Co., for the account of the British treasury, of which the Morgan firm is the fiscal agent in this country. A similar shipment is on the way on another steamer. While the Morgan firm said it was not advised as to the purpose of the shipment, it is believed in financial circles that the British government is accumulating a supply of gold here for the purpose of using it in part payment of the $125,000,000 interest on the war debt due in October.

Limited Train Derailed.

Topeka, Kan - The Golden State limited, westbound, a Rock Island passenger train, left the track here at noon Sunday, just as it was leaving the Union Pacific tracks to cross the Rock Island bridge over the Kansas river.

The engine, mail car, baggage car and the front trucks of a third car left the tracks, but did not overturn. The track was torn up for some distance.

Tornado Sweeps Farms.

Bloomfield, Neb. - Several persons were injured, two seriously, Sunday, when a tornado tore a path through the farming community six miles west of here. The storm center was at the Rohrer farm, where all the buildsixth month in 52 years, according to ings were wrecked. The property weather bureau records, the total prè- damage on this farm is estimated at cipitation amounting to only .14 of an $12,000. Trees were torn up and crops badly damaged.

Outlaws Take $4000.

Los Angeles, Cal. - Between $4000 and $5000 was obtained by two young outlaws who late Sunday in an eleva tor in a downtown office building, held jobs should be formed to represent hand June 20. This is an increase up and robbed E. Hamiln and E. C. the shop employes in disputes before from May's unfilled orders, which to Harrison. The victims were collectors for the Puente Oil company, and we go just day after tomorrow. Our trunks are 'most packed, and Mother says she wishes she'd planned to go today. I've said good-bye to all the girls, and promised to write loads of letters about Boston and everything. They are almost as excited as I am: and I've promised, "cross my heart and hope to die," that I won't love those Boston girls better than I do them-specially Carrie Heywood, of course, my dearest friend,

Nurse Sarah is hovering around everywhere, asking to help, and pretending she's sorry we're going. But she isn't sorry. She's glad, I know she is. She never did appreciate Mother, and she thinks she'll have everything her own way now. But she won't. I could tell her a thing or two If I wanted to. But I shan't.

Father's sister, Aunt Jane Anderson, from St. Paul, is coming to keep house for him, partly on account of Father, and partly on account of me. "If that child is going to be with her father six months of the time, she's got to have some woman there beside a meddling old nurse and a nosey servant girl!" They didn't know I heard that. But I did. And now Aunt Jane is coming. My ! how mad Nurse Sarah would be if she knew. But she doesn't.

I guess I'll end this chapter here and begin a fresh one down in Boston. Oh, I do so wonder what it'll be like-Boston, Mother's home, Grandpa Desmond, and all the rest. I'm so excited I can hardly wait. You see, Mother never took me home with her but once, and then I was a very small child. 1 don't know why, but I guess Father didn't want me to go. It's safe to say he didn't, anyway. He never wants me to do anything, hardly. That's why I suspect him of not wanting me to go down to Grandpa Desmond's. And Mother didn't go only once, in ages.

Now this will be the end. And when I begin again it will be in Boston Only think of it-really, truly Boston !

CHAPTER IV.

When I Am Marie. Boston.

Yes, I'm here. I've been here a week. But this is the first minute I've But we didn't stay at the play. It had a chance to write a word. I've been so busy just being here. And so has Mother. There's been such a lot to quarrel. They were married (not Four O'clock Monday Afternoon, and There Was Grandpa Desmond to Meet Us.

Then she hurried me to the dearest little room I ever saw, right out of hers, and took off my things. Then we went all over the house. And it's just as lovely as can be-not at all like Father's in Andersonville. Oh, Father's is fine and big and handsome, and all that, of course; but not like this. His is just a nice place to eat and sleep in, and go to when it rains. But this-this you just want to live in all the time. Here there are curtains 'way up and sunshine, and flowers in pots, and magazines, and cozy nooks with cushions everywhere and books that you've just been reading laid down. (All Father's books are in bookcases, always, except while one's in your hands being read.) Grandpa's other daughter. Mother's sister, Hattle, lives here and keeps house for Grandpa. She has a little boy named Lester, six years old; and her husband is dead. They were away for what they called a week-end when we came, but they got here a little after we did Monday afternoon; and they're lovely, too.

We have dinner at night here, and I've been to the theater twice already in the afternoon. I've got to go to school next week, Mother says, but so far I've just been having a good time. And so's Mother. Honestly, it has just seemed as if Mother couldn't crowd the days full enough. She hasn't been still a minute.

Lots of her old friends have been to see her; and when there hasn't been anybody else around she's taken Peter and had him drive us all over Boston see things-all kinds of things; Bunker hill and museums, and moving rictures, and one play.

mind or the imagination the book which is good to read today is good to read tomorrow.-Arlo Bates

The first separate school for colored children in Massachusetts was established in 1708.

Even should a man make it a rule to read nothing until he has a definite estimate of its merit, he will find in the end that he has lost little. For any purpose of the cultivation of the

with his head on one side, and exclaiming "Oh !" and "Ah !" with a long breath. He says Mother's coloring is wonderful. I heard him, And I didn't like it very well, either. Why, it sounded as if she put it on herself out of a box on her bureau, same as some other ladles do!

"Dr. Anderson is not a wretch at all. He's an honorable, scholarly gentleman."

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Good Books.