Narrow Escape

Mr. Philip A. (Dad) Coale one of the best known citizens of this locality narrowly escaped a fatal accident one day last week while returning from one of his customary jaunts through the surrounding communities, calling on friends and gathering material for his wonderful "Short Stories" for which he is celebrated. Deals in wool and hides as a side line, and with several tons on the wagon his spirited team took fright at a passing truck, just as he started to descend the grade from Wapinitia plains, reared and plunged over the embankment, Mr. Coale being a skillful reinsman lost both lines and by almost super-human effort clung to the seat until rescued by the driver of the truck. His injuries consisted of a bad fright and it will be some time before he will entirely recover. He wishes to thank his many friends for their kindness in listening to his elaborate explaining, how he handled the team and escaped having his brains dashed upon the rocks. Upon the advice of all he departed for Portland to enjoy a complete rest from his arduous tasks.

L. C. Wilhelm returned home yesterday from Portland where he went for treatment two weeks ago after being hurt when a scraper struck him.

Around Maupin

A fire occurred at about nine o'clock Tuesday night of last week at Frieda which destroyed the O. T. railroad tool house and burned grass on the hill side for an hour or two before Mrs. W. D. Roberts and Mrs. A. Philmlee who were alone at the section house could get it under control.

George Crofoot and family motored in Friday evening from Monmouth, Oregon. Miss Vina Ayres accompanied them, returning Sunday.

Mr. Knox, postal inspector for this division and the rural route inspector were out a few days ago investigating the route for rural mail service out of Maupin for the entire Juniper Flat section. This service which has been needed for many years is hoped for in the near future. It is estimated that it will save many of the farmers individually as high as $300.00 a year.

McDonald-Derthick

Miss Ica Derthick and George McDonald were married in Portland at the White Temple on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Russell M. Brougher officiated. Miss Phyllis Fischer and Mrs. Charles Deyette attended the bride. They have many friends here who wish them much joy and happiness.

Gate creek fire is now under control, until another cigarette is thrown by the roadside, really shouldn't smokers be barred from the forest during dry weather or at least have a permit issued to them, same as campers? Harvest is about over.

Mrs. J. E. Woodcock and family visited Mrs. Ipha Duncan on Sunday.

A blowout caused Iona Felch to miss connections on Sunday, as it was too late to attend Sunday school, when car was some
