THE YEAR $1.50

Maupin Couple Wed

Bridget Delia Mulkern and Patrick J. King of Maupin were united in marriage this morning at St. Peter's Catholic church, Rev. P. J. O'Rourke officiating. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Connolly.

The bride was attractive in a dress of blue satin and wore a corsage of lilies-of-the-valley and roses. The bride was attended by Miss Isabel Sandoz, who wore

Marksmanship Display

A demonstration is to be given August 29th at Shattuck Bros. by Gus Peret of the Peters Cart-ridge Co. who is a well known fancy trick and expert shot. He has also established a reputation as a big game hunter—many of his articles on Alaskan Hunting have already appeared in the Out-Door Life Magazine.

The stunts performed constitute work with rifles, revolvers, and shot guns. Peret will draw pictures of Buffalo Bill, Uncle Sam, Indians, or other characters suggested by the crowds on sheets of blank tin without tracing. He will throw blue rocks in the air and hit them with five shots from the pump; eject two empty shells from a pump gun and hit them in the air. Lying on his back he will break three eggs tossed in the air, with a 22 rifle; will eject the empty shell and hit it. With the same rifle he will hit three washers, in the air; also marbles, and will do special aerial work with a 38-caliber revolver; shoot through the holes in washers while same are in the air. With the same arm he will split cards in half while sighting through a mirror.

Partial schedule: Maupin, August 29th; Bend, August 25; Redmond, 26th; Prineville, 27th; Grass Valley, 30th.

a dress of blue silk and carried a bouquet of roses. William Connolly was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. King left this morning for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at Maupin.—Chronicle 19.

John Foley is erecting a new brick flue in his house occupied by Atty. and Mrs. E. B. Dufur, to replace the one broken off by ice slide last winter.

Mountain Echoes

J. H. Woodcock and R. E. Wilson were early arrivals at the Summit House meadows Sunday morning to spend the day with their families who are camped there.

Mrs. H. L. Morris and Erma, Glen Morris and family and Mrs. Frank Dyer were recuperating at Salmon river camp ground this week.

F. M. Confer and family spent a few days over the week end at Salmon river, getting black berries.

L. D. Kelly came out from Summit Wednesday for more supplies.

E. M. Confer and family arrived Tuesday evening at Salmon river.

A particularly interesting item in camp life is the variety of heating and cooking methods employed by the various sojourners at a camp city. One finds every conceivable style from a plain camp fire to a modern gas line range.

Frank Burden and wife of Tygh and two elderly lady relatives are camped at Salmon river this week getting huckle berries. Vard Naval and family drove up to Summit last Friday from Wamic.

Mrs. Floyd Vanderpool and children drove through from Dufur to Summit Friday, making the trip successfully.

Mt. Hood is said to have less snow on it this year than for a long time.

E. M. Hill and family of Dufur and brother Roy and family of The Dalles drove up to Salmon river last Friday for huckle berries, remaining until Tuesday. They returned home over the Columbia river highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Shattuck have been camped at Salmon river several days hunting and picking berries. Tuesday Mr. Shattuck picked two-thirds of a ten gallon can of huckle berries. They removed Wednesday to Clackamas lake.

P. H. Mott and family started Wednesday by wagon for the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and

Around Maupin

E. A. Cyr Wednesday found a small water snake on the floor of the store warehouse room.

H. A. Walter is this week painting the exterior of the J. L. Confer and O. P. Weberg residences.

Operations are commencing today for the erection of a new modern bungalow on the M. F. Van Laanen lots.

John Donaldson has purchased the H. A. Whaite property and is making some improvements thereon. The Whaite family will leave for the coast and Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson will take possession the first of the month.

Mrs. Ira Grisham, H. L. Young and family are camping at Clear lake.

A. Philmore and family and Mrs. A. F. Martin and daughter made the trip home from Summit the last of the week after a few days' camping for berries.

Ed Davis and family were camped this week at Salmon river and picking blackberries on surrounding burns.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ledford are living at Big Meadows this summer.

A large crowd from the Wamic settlement are camped on the Barlow trail this side of Summit prairie and picking berries on the burned over territory west of the road.

J. H. Eubanks and family were camped a few days this week at the last crossing on Salmon river.

W. L. Morrison and family and Mrs. M. F. Van Laanen shut the doors of the Times office and camped on Frog lake and Salmon river from Friday until Wednesday, coming home with a load of huckle berries. W. L. boasts of using only nine gallons of gasoline on the round trip.

The Oregon Skyline trail to Govt Camp is in fairly good condition except for the Big Meadow hill, despite the fact it has had almost no work on it this year.

Dave Donaldson with a couple junior companions drove out last Friday from Govt. Camp.

Julius Shipplin and family started for the mountains Wednesday with team and wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Duncan and Mrs. Cora Foster and children started for the mountains Wednesday, Mrs. Foster driving the team and wagon.

W. E. Hunt and son drove out from the sheep camp the last of the week.

A couple game wardens came through from Redmond Saturday and took a victim out to Oregon City on an improper license investigation.

Plenty of berries on the burns above Salmon river and Summit prairie, but little game reported.

Herbert Egbert and sister Miss Leola of The Dalles arrived Saturday at Big Meadows for a few days' camp.

J. I. Parker and son Orion arrived Tuesday night at Salmon river camp. This is Mr. Parker's first visit in 23 years. He has vivid reminiscences of that time, however, of his father and R. W. McCorkle nearly losing their lives when fording the river in high water.

Many Indians are met coming and going in all styles of conveyance. Two young men lost a wheel from their hack coming down Big Meadow hill Tuesday evening and left it at the foot of the hill while they went in quest of another wheel.
