School Notes

Those winning prizes at the Tygh Valley Fair were as follows: Winnifred Kaiser—1st in second division of sewing. Olive Turner 2nd in second division of sewing. Jean Wilson 1st in first division of sewing. Florence Philmlee 2nd in first division of cooking. Helen Philmlee 2nd in first division of canning. In the canning demonstration, Maupin was awarded second prize, Wapinitia winning first. Winnifred Kaiser won a trip to the State Fair at Salem for having the highest number of points. Her mother will accompany her.

A special meeting of the Student body was called to order Monday for the purpose of considering the revised constitution submitted by the constitutional committee, it was adopted by a unanimous vote. In the way of further business a committee of four consisting of Mabel Cyr, Erma Morris, Floyd Richmond and Orland Walter was appointed to investigate prices on basketball balls, volley balls, volley nets, etc., for the athletic work for the coming year. This committee is also empowered to make a budget of all the expenses that said committee could foresee to occur during the year. After these expenses are totaled the student body will then raise money to meet them possibly by series of entertainments.

Excavation for the new high school was started Monday.

The high school now claims a total enrollment of nineteen students.

The entering of Ilda and Newton Miller raised the grammar room enrollment to twenty-six.

To Clear Title

Suit to clear title to property in possession of Charles N. and James M. Farlow was filed in the circuit court this morning against T. J. Driver, et ux.

The suit involves the purchase of the property in question at a sheriff's sale shortly after Driver's term as sherig of Wasco county had expired. Driver is alleged to have purchased the land at this sale, and then turned ed it back to Charles and James Farlow in consideration of the purchase price. Driver never gave a deed, in this transaction however, it is alleged, and a court order which would take the place of a deed is sought. —Chronicle, Friday.

Work is progressing quite rapidly on the Harpham hotel, which will be when finished one of the finest buildings in Maupin
