

Interesting Meeting

The meeting of the Wasco County Farmer's Union at Universal Hall on November 2, was very well attended by resident members, and by representative visitors from all but one of the county locals who were present.

The morning session was mostly group discussion relative to the affairs of the Wheat Grower's association. After the remains of a bountiful dinner had been cleared away, Co. President Hillman called the meeting to order. Minutes of the last meeting at Columbia Hall having been read, the house gave undivided attention to a discourse by the state president, E. R. Shumway. His remarks were well received, but all were saddened by his declaring he would not be a candidate for re-election to the office he has held long and filled so admirably. In the business meeting following the address many things affecting the welfare of the farmers of Wasco county were discussed and conclusions arrived at for the betterment of the members of the Union.

The next county meeting will be held at Nansene Hall, perhaps in January, the exact date to be announced later. The State Convention will be held at Lebanon, December 7, 8, 9, to which all members are invited, in addition to the regular delegates. The next meeting at Union hall will be held November 11, Saturday at 1 p. m.

Miss Emma Paige of Marshalltown, Iowa

Miss Paige has been engaged to conduct revival services at the Wapinitia church. She comes highly recommended for the work of an evangelist. Having just conducted revival services at Weston, Oregon, the pastor at that place writes as follows to Rev. Parker: "We are well pleased with Miss Paige's methods of conducting meetings. She has done us acceptable work and we believe no church can afford not to have her if she can be obtained. She wins the confidence and appreciation of the people."

Meetings begin Sunday morning, November 12.

School Notes

The Girls' Basket Ball teams were duly selected by Mr. Dinwiddie Tuesday. A first and second team were organized, the second team including a few girls from the grammar grade room. The weather is preventing both boys and girls from playing at present. We are very anxious to move to the new high school, which is rapidly progressing, so that weather can have no effect on the games.

The boys have not organized their Basket Ball teams yet, but expect to in the near future. At present they are choosing sides in order to have two teams.

Mr. Gronewald made the statement when here some time ago, that "a singing school is a happy school". If that is the case, the Maupin school can be said to be a happy one, indeed, for when the weather does not permit out-door playing the students gather around the piano and "raise the roof" in some real lively singing. We find that after fifteen or twenty minutes of lively singing we can settle down to good hard work when school work begins.

The Maupin High School Literary Society will meet Friday afternoon, November 17, at 2:30 o'clock. The debate has been cut down, both in speakers and time for each speaker, so we will not detain the visitors so long as at last meeting. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Primary and Grammar grade rooms are giving an Armistice program Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. Visitors will be gladly received.

The Honor Roll for the Primary room this month is as follows: Thelma Morris, Genevive Allen, Evelyn McKee, Greatha Turner, Naomi Walter, Evelyn Doss, Laco Greene, Glen Moss, John McKee, Phillip Stockton, Dorothy Harpham, Mary Greene Ruel Walter, Ralph Moss, Edmund Wilson, Charles Bothwell, Doris Doss, Thelma Harpham, Mabel Weberg.

Fatal Accident

James Doran's car overturned Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock near the Buzan place seven miles east of here as he was returning home from town. He was pinned under the machine with both jaws crushed and neck broken, death having been instant. The slippery condition of the road after the rain is thought to have caused the machine to skid. Mr. Doran is a well-known rancher of this section where he has made his home for several years. Mrs. Thomas Flanagan of 870 Court St., Portland, is a cousin. Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan came Wednesday and took the body to Portland for burial.
