School Notes

The boys have organized a first and second Basket Ball team and are playing against each other.
The Armistice Day program held in the primary room last Friday afternoon was very good and enjoyed by all. A number especially pleasing was a number of old war time songs sung by the pupils of the grammar grade room. The high school was invited in to hear the program and the Glee Club contributed a number to the program. A large number of parents and patrons were present.
Most of the concrete work is finished in the new school building.
Notice of School Election to Increase Tax More Than Six Per Cent Over That of the Previous Year
