Sidelights on the Council

An impromptu recess forced itself in order last night when Marshal Wilhelm turned the switch which starts the sausage grinder operating.

Mr Shattuck purchased some apples and treated the crowd.

J. H. Woodcock "blew up" the apple sack and bursted it with such force that the crowd was startled, for which offence he was duly arrested and ordered to appear in the morning and pay a fine of $1 at the recorder's office.

The present offence provoking the subject of nuisances, the matter of woodpiles in alleys was mentioned and agreed that the councilmen should be first made examples of. In checking up, Dr. Stovall was found to be the only offender among the city dads and an order to remove said wood from the alley was postponed, presuming that if the present cold weather continues the wood will be dispatched in due time without need of legal process.

Mr. Wilhelm mentioned the subject of a jail for offenders in view of the fact that we thus far have no rock crusher, and received encouragement that Butler's basement would serve well, with the exception of Mr. Butler's objection that an order to pay a fine at the recorder's office would be more convenient for the present.

You can get "Werks Laundry Soap" from R. E. Wilson Co. Leave your watch repairing at The Maupin Drug Store.

Local

In spite of the snow Maupin is having her regular picture shows as Manager C. M. Plyler is making his trips by train.

Mrs. John Donaldson is spending this week at the Raymond Crabtree home on the Flat.

Cold this week, average zero. Several water pipes are frozen.

Excellent Season's display may be seen in local store windows. Shattuck Bros. have one window of assortments and decorations that far outclasses the ordinary window decoration even for the present season and is full of practical suggestions that speak for themselves. Then, there is a window in our local meat market with its display of "Every thing for the table", that deserves its share of praise.

Mrs. Wm. Beckwith announces the arrival of the added row of drops for the Maupin Switchboard. Those wanting individual lines may now enjoy that privilege.

Don Miller is assisting Carl Pratt to carry the mail by meeting him at Endersby's and making the lower route with a team.

The glass front in the office and parts room of the Maupin garage is an added improvement Mr. Wood announces some practical displays soon.

Mrs. M. F. VanLaanen took Miss Elnora Hildenbrand to The Dalles hospital Friday where she underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday morning.

Mrs. VanLaanen returned Sunday and reported her as doing nicely.

Mrs. Scott returned to Portland Friday after a three weeks visit with her husband who is employed on the new school building.

M. F. VanLaanen returned Tuesday from a weeks stay in Portland and Salem.

Miss Nell Harpham Harpham who is employed in The Dalles visited home folks over Sunday.

Mrs. Agusta Rooker of Tygh Valley died at her home Monday
