Honor these Seals

A NATION-WIDE movement is carrying on a warfare against the scourge of Consumption. In saving over 100,000 lives last year, it actually cut the death rate from tuberculosis in half.

Each year these organizations sell Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. The proceeds from these sales are devoted to the work of caring for and curing tuberculosis patients and to educational and other work to prevent the dread disease.

Buy these Seals and urge your friends to buy and use them. To do this is both Charity and Patriotism.

Mayor's Cow in Pound

The appearance of a strange long horned red cow who rustled a luscious breakfast of kale from H. F. Woodcock's garden, and her subsequent arrest by Pound master Laco B. DeCamp and incarceration in a section of the livery barn as city pound quarters has caused Mayor R. E. Wilson to be the object of more mirth than Maupin has heretofore enjoyed.

Bossy had been noticed for a few days and after so viscous an offense on the said citizen's supply of winter chicken feed, Mayor Wilson assumed the duty of inquiring as to ownership, and being unable to find her master, ordered Mr. DeCamp to take care of her. Now, Mr. Wilson having numerous other more personal duties to look after than investing personally strange stock running at large, rather depended on information furnished by J. R. Fleming and others that the brand on this particular cow was not the same as that on some cattle he had himself purchased this fall, than investigating for himself. So after being assured that his brand was not on the animal, considered he had no further responsibility in the matter than to assure Poundmaster DeCamp of $1.50 a day for keeping Bossy and the city a fine of $5 to add to the treasury. Mr. DeCamp recognized the cow as a goodly animal and proceeded to "look her over" while she was enjoying a meal legally provided for her by the city of Maupin and discovered the particular brand which Mayor Wilson claims for his cattle, and thereupon informed Mr. Wilson of the fact. Now as the "laws of the Medes and Persians changeth not", so an order by the Mayor of Maupin must not be altered, even though it is his own cow who is dining at the city pound until redeemed. The present condition of the trail leading to the pasture where her former companions are feeding being impractical to attempt to lead Bossy, she will remain a city ward until traveling is better.

Around Maupin

The exercises at the school house will commence at 2 o'clock sharp tomorrow instead of 2:45 as formerly.

E. A. Cyr is becoming proficient at writing out checks for patrons at Shattuck Bros. store. It is said that he commenced Monday to not only write the check, but also fills in the name. For further information or assistance in this line, see E. A. Cyr at Shattuck Bros. store.

Lewis Derthick arrived Sunday evening for his mid years vacation from O. A. C. Clifford Morrow and Harry Gabel arrived Monday and Leonard Farlow went Friday night to his home on Smock.

Mrs. John Foley and children returned home Monday after a ten week's visit with her parents in San Francisco. This is Mrs. Foley's first visit "home" since coming to Maupin.

Jack Donaldson, who had the misfortune to have a horse fall on his foot last week, is able to be around town again with the aid of a cane.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dahl spent the first of the week visiting friends in Maupin.

Mrs. Ollie Bothwell was a Maupin visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Davidson were shopping in Maupin Tuesday.

Nathan Hill left on Tuesday's train for The Dalles.

Mrs. Julia Endersby was in Maupin Tuesday to meet her brother who came on the night train from Portland.

Robert Davidson was in town Tuesday.

J. H. Woodcock and H. A. Walter have spent considerable time this week thawing out the water pipes leading from the Deschutes Avenue main to their respective homes.

The Harpham Hotel will have their formal opening with a big Christmas dinner Monday from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M. Patronize your local hotel by taking in the feed, also don't forget the big smoker and dance given by the American Legion in the evening.

School Notes

The Maupin Schools will have a vacation from Friday, December 22, 1922 to January 2, 1923.

Don't forget the Maupin High School debate on the question: Resolved- That the principal of the open shop should be adopted in American Industries. The school will appreciate your presence at this meeting. Three members from the six debating at this debate will be chosen for the main debate team in the Oregon High School Debating League.

The Maupin Schools wish you one and all, a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Renewals for the Maupin Times this week are: A. M. Daniels, John Foley, C. B. Dahl, Mrs. C. E. Tunison, Crandall Co. E. A. Cyr, W. B. Keen, J. R. Fleming, and Oregonian.

Doc. Now Grandfather

A race between the stork and the ambulance, was run over the city's streets yesterday evening. The ambulance won and the advantages of hospital service was enjoyed by a fine boy, who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Elwood, of this city.—Wednesday 13, Chronicle.

Council Meeting

A special meeting of the city council convened last night for consideration of the sidewalks recently constructed. The committee, L. C. Wilhelm, L. C. Hennehan and J. Chalmers viewed the walks this morning and recommend that 75 per cent of the bill for the walks laid along blocks 34, 35, 36 and 25, be paid the cement company, and reject some of the work in front of blocks 24 and 37.
