Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Corum went from The Dalles to Portland Thursday to attend the funeral of Alfred Sanford. A dance was given at the Shively home Saturday night. Several inches of snow fell here last night and today.

Agent E. W. Griffin, whose chickens suffered the loss of their residence in the recent high water and had to resort to a box car, has replaced the wrecked cottage with a more substantial building, and their hens now break the monotony with healthy sounding cackles.

Percy Martin was in town this morning.
