Smock News

Every one busy with spring work.

Easter at our Sunday School was well observed by a musical program and recitations by the young folks. Every one turned out and dinner was eaten out of doors. That does not sound like snow drifts and 14 degrees below zero such as old Iowa is having now.

Miss Iona Felch went to Dufur for treatment on Sunday.

F. T. Felch went to The Dalles on Sunday, making the round trip in 8 hours, after having dinner in The Dalles and stopping a short time in Dufur, so the roads are better.

Oliver Tractor Disc Plows Are Built for Enduring Service

Oliver Disc Plows are built for work where the average disc plow fails. There is extra strength in the frame to withstand the strain of plowing in hard, tough, waxy loam or in soil where there are roots, stumps or stones.

The discs penetrate uniformly under all conditions. The levers are easy to operate. The power lift is positive. The draft is light. Wheel weights for wheels give increased penetration when needed.

The Oliver Disc Plow is furnished in 2, 3 or 4-disc. The hitch is adjustable to suit varying plowing conditions. You should see one work to appreciate the many improvements.

Prize Offered

To further the cause of clean fiction and in an attempt to discover new talent, "Columbia," the Knights of Columbus official national magazine, announces in its April issue a short story contest with prizes aggregating $500.00, the largest fiction prize money ever offered by a Catholic publication. The first prize is $200.00 and there are three other prizes of $150, $100, and $50. In addition Columbia reserves the right of publishing non-prize-winning stories at its regular rates for fiction. No story in the contest must be longer than 10,000 or shorter than 2,000 words. All manuscripts must be typewritten in English and accompanied by stamped return envelopes. The contest closes on Monday July 2, and the first prize winner will be announced and the story published in the August issue of Columbia. —Daily American Tribune.

B. A. Kliks, Plaintiff, vs. Joseph Traxtle, Ed Traxtle, Everett A. Nelson and Nellie Nelson, his wife, Grace Nelson, a minor and Elmer Nelson, a minor Defendants. Notice of Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of an execution issued out of the above entitled cause and Court, dated March 13th, 1923, to the undersigned Sheriff of Wasco County, directed, based upon that certain judgment order, decree and order of sale, made in the above entitled cause and Court, dated March 9, 1923, wherein it was adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff, B. A. Kliks, recover from the defendant, Joseph Traxtle, the sum of $548.57, with interest at 10 per cent per annum; plus the following sums with interest at 6 per cent per annum, to-wit: The sum of $111.03, taxes advanced, plus the sum of $75.00 as plaintiff's reasonable attorney fees, and the costs and disbursements taxed at $30.80, all of which sums bear interest from the date of said decree, March 9, 1923; and further, said Writ commanded me to make sale of the following described real property, to-wit:

The Southwest quarter of the Northwest Quarter and the Northwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 26, and the South Half of the Northeast Quarter and the North Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 27, all in Township 3 South of Range 12 East of the Willamette Meridian in Wasco County, Oregon, containing 240 acres.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, said Judgment Order, Decree and Order of Sale and in compliance with the commands of said Writ, I will, on Friday, April 20, 1923, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., at the east front door of the Wasco County Court House, at The Dalles, Oregon, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which any of the within named defendants, and each of them, had on February 15, 1913, the date of the mortgage herein recited, or since that date, had in or to the above described real property, or any part thereof, in order to satisfy said execution, judgment order, and decree, interest, costs and accruing costs.

Dated March 13, 1923.
Levi Chrisman,
Sheriff of Wasco County, Oregon
