School Notes

The roll of honor for the month of March in the primary is Philip Stockton, Naomi Walter, Charles Bothwell, Reuel Walter, Doris Doss, Wendell Lindley, Melvin Lindley, Donald Locke, and Arden Locke.

Rain and bad roads kept many from the institute last Saturday. In the afternoon the seventh grade from The Dalles demonstrated Socialized class work. This was enjoyed by all. Rain stopped the ball game at the end of the third inning. The high school boys won from a mixed team.

We are putting more effort on practice for the track meet this week. Don't forget the track meet Saturday, April 14, at 1:00 o'clock. There will be a ball game in the morning. All the parents and patrons of the school are cordially invited to attend the meet.

Bids For Wood

The Board of Directors of Madras Union High School, Madras, Oregon will receive sealed bids for 70 cords of wood to delivered and corded on the school grounds not later than July 15th, 1923. Wood to be measured on the grounds. Bids will be accepted for fir, pine, or juniper in four foot lengths and not more than 10 inches at the large end. Bids will be opened May 5th, 1923. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.—A. Louis Lambert, Clerk Madras, Oregon.

Which Kind?

Why not try the rapid growth Rhode Island Reds? See the flock and get hatching eggs from—Owen McCorkle.

To Badger Lake

Although the trail to Badger Lake is not generally open until May, W. O. Hadley, district game warden, and a force from the Oak Springs hatchery, are going to attempt to break a way through during the next several days and establish a camp near the outlet of the lake. It is expected to trap rainbow trout in Badger creek, along the three-quarter mile stretch which has been closed to fishing. The trout go down into the creek from the lake to spawn. After they are trapped the eggs will be taken to the Oak Springs hatchery and the trout will be placed back in the lake. In this way Hadley hopes to develop an independent and society meetings—H. A. Walter
