Library Notes
The County Library has just sent down a new collection of books for the Maupin Library Station which is located in the Shattuck Bros. store. The library is now supplying the Maupin station with more than the average sized traveling library as the demand for books has been large and the regular traveling library of fifty volumes has not been enough to supply the demand. The new collection which Mrs. Cyr has just received includes books by many of the well known writers of the day and others that are just as good but not quite so widely advertised, as well as some of the older but popular authors of both fiction and nonfiction. Some of the authors represented in this list are Emerson Hough, Bower, Hergesheimer, Joseph Lincoln, Zane Grey, Booth Tarkington, Bindloss, Mc Cutcheon, Knibbs, Will Irwin, White, Deland, Hemon, Kyne, and John Fox, Jr. The list includes a good many different types of stories, so that those who want adventure, mystery, or romance will be able to find something to their liking. For others who want something besides stories there are also a number of interesting and worth while books.

The boys and girls will find at least twentyfive good books for their reading. The County Librarian, Miss Carr, reports that the last library collection which Mrs. E. A. Cyr sent in from Maupin, had a total circulation of 493. Maupin station is now rated as one of the best stations in the county for the use made of the library books. The circulation from the adult books was 362, and that from the children's 131.

Council Notes
Maupin city council met in regular session last evening with all officers present except Woodcock and Stovall.

Two bills were ordered paid. Ordinance No. 24 relating to licensing of hawkers and peddlers was discussed; the decision reached that it was insufficient to reach present needs and does not provide for daily license. Councilman Shattuck was requested to draft a new ordinance, revoking the former and that will better cover the needs.

Ordinance No. 48, providing for licensing, impounding and killing of dogs running at large was passed, becomes effective May 15. License fees are $3 for male animals and $5 for females. Dogs not licensed will be impounded and held for 48 hours, during which time owners may ransom a dog by paying $5. In case not redeemed, killed the following morning at 10 o'clock.

Question of water system discussed, committed having nothing of importance to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Zumwalt and Mr. and Mrs. Widell motored up over the highway from Portland Friday. Mr. Zumwalt remained here to go sheep shearing.
