postoffice at Maupin, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

There are ground hogs, road hogs, lean hogs, fat hogs, and several different kinds of hogs, but the worst hogs we have in this town are the water hogs.

If every one would abide by the rules maybe we would all get a little water instead of just a few getting it all of what little there is to be had.

Jimmy and Barbara Ward from Portland to The Dalles Friday evening. Mrs. Lake and Jimmy came on out here Saturday with Mr. Lake and little Barbara returned to Portland with Dr. and Mrs. Dake.

Mrs. A. E. Lake was called from Wn. where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Ward and family, by the sudden death of her brother John Braply. Mr.
Bradly fell just after entering his home following a short walk.
He expired immediately from an attack of heart trouble. He was 72 years of age. The Odd Fellows conducted the funeral rites at the house and the Elks had charge of the ceremony at the cemetery. The burial was in Oregon City, Mr. Bradley's home on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Driver, Lenore Woodcock of Smock and Carmel Woodcock went to The Dalles Saturday remaining over night with relatives. They witnessed the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Driver to Dufur stopping at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Short. They took her to The Dalles where she saw the big parade.

Ed Driver, Willis and Tom Driver and their families went to The Dalles Saturday.

Mrs. Jessiline Morrison and two children Frank and Edith were Dalles visitors Thursday from Maupin. They remained until Monday guests of N. W.
Flinn's Mr. Morrison brought them home.

Percy Driver went to The Dalles Saturday and brought his wife and son Percy Brenton home from the hospital Mrs. D. A.
Harvey accompanied them to town and back.

Claris Zumwalt and Velma Crofoot went to The Dalles Monday.

C. S. McCorkle came up from Portland Friday. Mrs. Mary J.
Swift came with him. She had been staying the past month with Mrs. Lydia Patison. Mr. Mc-Corkle was driving a new Ford car he had just purchased in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Muller, Rogina Muller, Carl Dahl and wife and K. L. Hauser went to The Dalles from Tygh to see the Elks carnival.

Henry Miller and wife were in The Dalles today from the White River plant.

Sunday the Pine Grove Sunday school entertained the Wapi-nitia Sunday school at the grove on the old Peterson place. A good time was enjoyed by all.
A joint session of the schools was held for a study of the lesson after which lunch was served.
The afternoon was spent in singing hymns.

Mr. and Mrs. Perle Evick returned from the valley last Friday. Their vacation was saddened by the death of their son-in-law Sol Weigle who was accidently killed while working at the Roberts sawmill ten miles south of Philomath. He was driving a team with a big log and coming to a hill side, to prevent the log from rolling put out one hand to steady it but it proved too much and rolled upon him, passing over him it fractured his shoulder and literally crushed his liver.
His suffering was intense. He leaves his young wife, a mother and seven brothers.
