What promises to be a treat to local theatre-goers is the coming of the Majestic Players to the I.
O. O. F. hall next Sunday for an engagement of two days.

This organization, consisting of eight talented performers, come direct from the Grand theatre Bend, where they have just completed an engagement of eight weeks.

The Majestic Players are one of the best known dramatic companies on the road today and they are producing nothing but the most successful comedies and dramas. Besides the regular play they offer high class Vaudeville between the acts.

The opening play will be the comedy-drama "The Girl He Couldn't Buy". This play is one of the most successful dramas ever written and had a run of over two years in New York City alone. On the second night of their engagement they will offer the uproarious farce comedy
"Her Husband's Wife". If you enjoy good acting, clever singing and laughs don't fail to see the Majestic Players while they are here.

Who Owns The Union Pacific?

The Union Pacific is owned by 51,016 stockholders.

Forty-three percent of the stockholders are women.

Stockholders outnumber by 4,461 the yearly average number of officers and employees of the system.

No one person, firm, corporation or institution owns as much as two percent of the capital stock.

The average holding is 63 share of a par value of $6,300.00.

A large amount of the stock, although registered in the names of stock brokers, is actually owned by a great many different individuals, clients of such brokers Furthermore, many of the registered stockholders are executors, trustees, guardians, etc., representing individuals who are the beneficial owners. If, therefore, a list of the actual owners could be compiled, it would greatly exceed 51,016, and the average holding would be considerably less than 63 shares. Again large amounts of the stock are owned by life insurance companies and savings banks, who, though actually owning the stock, really hold it for the benefit of vast numbers of life-insurance policy holders and savings bank depositors.

Union Pacific stock, like the country's trade, follows the flag. Stockholders are found in every state of the Union, and in Alaska, the Canal Zone, Guam, Hawaii, Philippine Islands and Porto Rico.

Were these 51,016 Union Pacific stockholders assembled at one place, they would make a population as large as that of Lincoln, Butte, Topeka, Pasadena or Pueblo. They represent a greater number than the combined populations of Colorado Springs, Boulder and Greeley in Colorado, or Ogden, Provo and Logan in Utah

This widespread distribution conclusively answers the statement that the railways are owned and controlled by a few persons. To an extent not generally recognized, the railways are owned by the public. The subject comes home to every household when it is considered that life insurance policy holders and savings bank depositors are partners in the operation and development of our railways.

The public and our employees should know that we are working, not for a few wealthy men, but for an army of more than 50,000 persons, almost half of whom are women and most of whom are persons of moderate means.

To serve well the public and these shareholders is the highest ambition of the 46,555 officers and employees of the Union Pacific Family.

The Union Pacific's constant effort is to furnish its patrons and the general public with the best brand of transportation that can be manufactured.

Constructive suggestions are always welcome.

President.
