With simple sincerity they unfold to you the human drama that flowered in the pioneer days of Oklahoma. You'll gasp at the prairie schooner caught in the swirling sweep of a blinding sand storm. You'll hold your breath at the lightening swoop of the riding outlaws. You'll thrill at the immense open spaces, the beauty and wondrous charm of primal nature. And you'll laugh a bit, weep a bit, with the rose of the rancho, the lonesome cowboy, the cynic, the outlaw and the schemer.

HUNTS FERRY WAREHOUSE CO.

Johnson-Martin

A marriage of interest to many Wasco County people occurred in The Dalles Monday afternoon, when Miss Viola Verle Martin, of Boyd became the bride of Huston Johnson well known re- of Wamic.

The couple was married at the county court house by Judge J. T. Adkinson. Mrs. John V. Martin, mother of the bride was in attendance.

Mrs. Johnson, nee Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Martin of Boyd. She attended school the past year at Dufur, where she first met the man that later was to become her husband. A romance sprung up between the two and their engagement was announced about two months ago.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnson, of Wamic. For the past two years he has been assisting his sather, who has charge of the mail route between Sherars bridge and Wamic.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds left for Wamic, where they will make their home.—Ant- lope Hera'd.
