NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The passenger train on the O. W. became derailed about three miles up the river from Maupin last Thursday afternoon, no one was hurt however. The passengers came back to the depot and were taken through to Bend by a special train on the O. T.

Little Jean Renick entertained several of her young friends yesterday afternoon. This little party was arranged all prior to Mrs. Renick's knowledge, she having written for the children what they requested a "play show bill" and which was used by them as an invitation to the affair. Due to Mr. Renick's discovery that the children had run away and were up town, a few were passed uninvited by the young hosts, but those who were so fortunate in being apprised of the party, declare it was a great success, and the hurriedly prepared refreshments were fine. All are anxious to give one like it.
