NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

The fair is over. Exhibits throughout all departments were of the most excellent class and the compartments were all well filled. Residents of this end of the county were largely in attendance, but The Dalles and Dufur were conspicuous by their absence.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beckwith are home again after a week's vacation at the coast.
 Twenty-four coyotes and one bobcat bit the dust in Wasco county during August as the prey of R. C. Fulkerson, predatory animal hunter, according to the monthly hunters' news letter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin and H. L. Young and family left Monday to attend the state fair.

Mrs. M. E. Morrison of Vancouver arrived Sunday morning from Fallbridge and is a guest at the Times office this week.

E. C. Woodcock has a promising pile of poles for Maupin's electric wire service, here on the ground. Construction on the plant is hoped to be not far away.

The caucine for the grade school building did not arrive in time for the rooms to be painted completely before school commenced. A. C. Martin and M. Creager finished the work last Saturday and Sunday.

F. B. Perry has moved his collier shop across the river into W. J. Harris' garage.

"Dad" Coale came out Saturday from the mountains with his little gray burro, which he has an exciting bear story to tell about. The little animal narrowly escaped with his life Mr. Coale, having to beat the bear off with a club.

Mr. and Mrs. Plyler were over from Wasco Sunday and put on the first show of the season.

Wm. Heckman and Clark Richardson came home from the mountains this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Shattuck returned home Friday from a ten days' auto trip.

Floyd Kelly and family spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelly. They brought out a sample of New Guinea bean which they have growing at their home in The Dalles. Some specimens are said to reach a length of 4 1/2 feet.

Erma Morris returned home today from The Dalles.

Wanted, 1000 posts made and delivered. Inquire Fen Batty, Maupin, Oregon.

Wapinitia

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sharpe are being congratulated upon the arrival of a little son early Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Wood and daughters who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sinclair left Sunday for their home in Roseburg.

Melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year. School started Monday and Tommy, Willie and Katie had to rise extra early and hunt their books and imprison their small feet once more in shoes—no more good times at the swimmin' hole or anywhere else.

F. G. Magill came over from Wamic Tuesday to to work his summerfallow.

Robert Magill will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks this winter and attend the Powell school.

Elna Ward is staying at Frank Batty's and attending the Powell school.

Ruby Powell went to Maupin Sunday and will remain with her sister, Mrs. Everett Richmond and attend the Maupin high school.

G. L. Harpham visited at the Wapinitia hotel Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. McCoy.

D. W. Woodside and Richard Delco took the former's race horses to Tygh Monday.

Geo. Burnside went to The Dalles Sunday and Mrs. B. and Dorcas returned with him that evening. They will live in Mrs. Sinclair's house this winter and the children will attend school here.

Lincoln Hartman is exhibiting his ironing boards at the fair.

Mrs. Gotlieb Teschner returned from Portland the latter part of the week.

There was no school Wednesday or Thursday, those days being granted the pupils to attend the fair.

Four of our young people, Josephine O'Brien, Ishom West, Lloyd and Ralph Woodside are planning on leaving soon for OAC.

There is to be a new school at the French house near Emil Hackler's this winter to accommodate the Hackler and Arnett children.

Fred Delco and family will leave soon for Hood River.

Mrs. Albert Hammer went to Tygh Valley Tuesday for prunes.

The young people of the Pine Grove Sunday school will meet with their teacher Miss Hassel at the Fred Laughlin home Saturday night to organize their class.

Chester Rice expects to leave soon for Estacada to spend the winter.

E. C. Woodcock makes daily trips through here with poles

Smock News

Hoi for the fair.
 School is progressing fine under the tutorage of Miss Sharpe.

Mrs. Cora Foster and children went to live in The Dalles, where Elnora and Elwood will attend school.

Harry Ayres spent a week at home, then went on to Weiser, Idaho, where he will teach school. George will attend school at Menmouth the coming winter.

Blaine and Edward Disbrow returned from the mountains on Friday evening where they were making trails.

Willis Farlow and wife are working for J. E. Kennedy.

W. H. Mayfield and family will leave for Yakima, Wn., the last of the week to make their home at that place. Henry was born and reared here and leaves a great many friends who wish them well in his venture to establish a home in another state.

E. E. Wall and family moved to the Wm. Maynard place near Wapinitia. J. C. Bradway and E. Davis each took a load.

All of Smock went to the fair Wednesday and Thursday.

F. T. Felch will fill his silo with corn Friday and Saturday.

REPAIR REMODEL REBUILD NOW

No better time than this fall to make those long planned improvements.
