School Notes

High School

The boys' ball team has been organized. Lewis Batty was elected captain, Floyd Richmond manager. The guards are Earl Locke and Kenneth Batty, forwards Lewis Batty and Vivian Eubanks, center Floyd Richmond. The girls have elected Jean Wilson as captain of the team, but have not lined the players up yet. Both boys and girls are practicing with very much enthusiasm and pep.

The new basket ball equipment including a new ball, goals and baskets have arrived. The new ball is to be for official use only.

The literary society has elected its new officers for the semester. Vivien Eubanks president, Winifred Kaiser vice president, and Helen Weberg secretary. A program committee was appointed and the society expects to give a first class program in about three weeks.

Mr. Bailey, representing the Curtis Publishing company visited the school Monday and started a campaign in the interest of the Country Gentleman magazine. The school was organized into two sections, with Jean Wilson and Lorraine Stovall appointed as leaders. Half the money which is taken in on the subscriptions will go to the high school student body treasury.

Myrtle Hall has been absent for several days on account of sickness.

Mrs. Kaiser and Mrs. Shattuck visited the H. S. this morning.

The H. S. is giving a short, impromptu program for the observance of Columbus day Friday afternoon.

Grade School

Those neither absent nor tardy who received 90 percent or more in the grammar room are: Della Sprouse, Lelah Weberg, Hazel Martin, Gladys Martin, Doris Kelley, Aliene Greene, Elden Allen, Donald Locke and Mabel Weberg.

We are preparing a short program for Columbus Day.

Melvin Jory is out this week on account of sickness.

We thank the high school for

Herd Law Void

There has been considerable controversy and difference of opinion among lawyers as to whether or not any of the herd laws adopted in various precincts of the county under the procedure outlined in Sections 9381 et seq. of the Oregon Code have been valid. The same questions have been raised relative to the general county herd law adopted at the last general election under the same provisions of the statute. This decision of the Supreme Court settles all questions. None of the precinct herd laws or the general county herd law are valid or enforceable. The question of stock running at large is left exactly where it was before the question was voted on in any of the precincts or the county.

the foot ball and volley ball.

The boys plan to get the volley ball net up and put up the swings for the primary room Saturday.

Primary Room

Following are the names of those neither absent nor tardy for the month ending October 5: John Renick, Herbert Kramer, Jimmie Agidius, Bernice Hollis, Thessa Morris, Genevieve Allen, Philip Stockton, Mabel Roberts, Greatie Turner, Edmund Wilson, Charles Bothwell.

The attendance for the month is 96.5 percent.

Lorraine Stovall, Editor.
Vivien Eubanks, Ass't. Editor.

Tygh Valley

James Kistner was much improved last week but took a relapse and is confined to the bed again and intends going to Dufur to take treatments as soon as his condition will permit.

The epidemic of sore throats and colds seems to hit every one alike.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Koch of Grass Valley were visiting at Mrs. Koch's parents' home Sunday.

A number from here attended the Calvin McCorkle sale on Juniper Flat Saturday despite the rain and muddy roads.

The bridge crew are taking a rest on account of the rain and the two "Mc's" are visiting in Portland, leaving here Saturday morning.

The show Saturday night was well attended and the dance given afterward was well patronized.

Rex New who has spent the summer with the P. R. L. and P. Co on Clackamas River, arrived home last week for the winter.

Fay New is visiting her friend Hilda Norvai this week.

Claud Jones sold his Federal truck to W. Stillwell.

Alfred McCorkle who was much improved last week is confined again to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Doring were visiting their daughter Mrs. A. McCorkle last Sunday.

There will be Sunday school every Sunday now under the leadership of D. C. Bones.

Services were conducted Sunday evening at the church by Rev. Smith of The Dalles.

The enrollment at our high school has passed the mark for one instructor, and the board has hired an assistant, who will arrive in a few days, and in another month our High will have a larger enrollment than in any previous year despite the efforts of some to make it other wise. You can't keep a good thing down very long.

J. M. Conroy arrived Saturday morning from his summer range near Mt. Hood with his band of sheep and reports considerable rain and some snow in the mountains.

W. H. Morrison was a Dalles visitor on Thursday.

W. S. Sloan is taking a vacation after a strenuous summer of cutting three crops of alfalfa on the May's ranch, and is sojourning in Dufur and elsewhere. O. M. Brittain is looking after the ranch in his absence.

John Kenyon who lived here several years ago but has been sojourning in California since, is now visiting his sister Mrs. Henry Brown.

If Henry goes to the White House we wonder if he will want to take Lizzie along to make it more homelike or if he will be contented to ride in one of the official "Limosines"?

Sam Bennet is delivering wood to Maupin.

C. H. Thaxter construction superintendent on the highway spent Sunday in The Dalles.

Zene Watkins is moving his family onto the Geo. Burlingame ranch north of town.

J. E. Morrow and son Quentin returned this week from their trip to Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wing visited their son at Wamie last Sunday.

Ed Faulk, an old time resident of this place, but now of The Dalles, was renewing acquaintances here last week.

The local member of the W. O. W. are talking of getting a charter instead of going to Dufur to attend.

Ralph Chandler of Wamie will move his family to Tygh in the near future in order to give his son the benefit of our high school

Cars Derailed

Eleven box cars were derailed last evening on the joint tract at milepost 77 between North and South junction, completely obstructing the track for both railroads. No trains went through here today, but it is planned for tomorrow's trains to meet at the wreck and transfer mail and passengers. It is hoped to have the track cleared by Saturday.

Around Maupin

Water users are requested to at the Van Laanen residence between the 15th and 25th of each month, by order of Mrs. Staats.

Mrs. G. L. Harpham and Mrs. Chas. Miller returned to The Dalles Tuesday.

E. M. Confer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer left the first of the week for a trip to the coast.

Mrs. Claud Wilson and children moved into the Johnson cottage on Grant avenue the first of the week.

Jack Staats was a visitor on our streets the fore part of the week. When Jack, Ira Kistner, Dave Donaldson, Jas Derthick, Billie Heckman, and Clark Richardson have all returned home from their mountain retreats it will seem time for winter again.

Sunday saw the departure of Lu Henneghan Bates Shattuck, Bob Wilson, Joe Kramer, Ben Fraley and Ray Kaylor for a hunting trip to Silver Lake. The latter two didn't get started until afternoon, planning to catch the others at Bend.

F. C. Butler is a business visitor in The Dalles.

A. C. Martin is looking after the Maupin Garage this week.

M. F. Van Laanen is doing some carpenter work at the Brenton Slusher home.

A. J. and son Claude Jones were over from Tygh Monday.

The numerous cars from the surrounding country visiting this place the past week is noticeable. A dozen or more at once are frequently seen parked in front of local stores.

Ray and Mrs. Kaylor returned home Saturday night after spending the summer at McKinzie Bridge.

Celebrates 100 Years

Grandma Cook, Mrs. R. Johnson's mother, is today celebrating 100th birthday. For many years the 11th of October has been a date for home-coming of relatives, and is again a gathering of as many of the descendants as could be present. Grandma is bright and cheerful, eats heartily and is spending the day reviewing early day events. The pupils of Mrs. Buzan's room are proud to have sent Grandma a letter of congratulation.

Notice

To the water users and non-water users:

There will be a meeting at the Kelly church, Saturday, October 27. Everyone come. It is for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year and to make arrangements to meet with the state engineer who will be in Maupin November 7th.

By order of O. L. Paquet, chairman.

R. W. McCorkle, secretary.

C. M. and Mrs. Plyler were here Sunday night and put on the screen, probably their last show here. They expect to open a theatre in Portland soon.
