I tage Just within the edge of town, Roses clung to eaves and trellis, And their petals drifted down, While a tragic scene was acted Just inside the cozy room, Where a man and woman labored, Lost to morning cheer and bloom; Gathered here and there the objects, Dear mementoes—now forlorn-Of the day they entered gaily On their happy wedding morn.

From the wall he took a picture, From a shelf she lifted books, Silently they stripped the cottage, Leaving bare its pleasant nooks; Eyes and voices cold and lifeless, Each avoided other's way, Soon they cleared the little parlor Of the things they'd meant to stay; When, from out a crowded trunk-till Tumbled something small and white, And a flood of burning tear-drops Hid the object from their sight.

Just a baby's shoe, quite shapeless, With a hole in one wee toe, But it told a heart-break story Of their dreams of long ago; Each one stooped to grasp the token That was lying on the floor, And at last two hearts were broken From their ley chill once more; Sobbingly two voices mingled In a name that came to mind, While hands clasped o'er a baby's shoe That Fate had chanced to find!

Two years ago I disposed of my ranch and came here to be near our children, for I had been sick for over a year, not able to do anything, and never had a moment's freedom from pain. I had headaches, sharp and shooting pains all thru my body. I felt miserable and low-spirited for I could get nothing to help me. A friend said, 'Why don't you try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—it may help you.' I tried it, and now feel greatly indebted to me. Three bottles of this wonderful medicine drove all the aches and pains out of my body and, so far, they have not returned."—H. B. Dick, 649 Umatilla Ave.
