part of both teachers and pupils if many of the children make their grades this year. We are fortunate in having very capable and experienced teachers in the grades or we might have before this experienced resignations in this department, and with reasonable excuse therefore. A third teacher is needed in the grades. We have the room which with moderate expense could be made suitable for a standard school room. In justice to all, this should be put in readiness and in actual use within the next month.

Criterion

Mrs. W. E. Hunt has been on the sick list, but is improved. C. A. Duus has made a few trips to Maupin this week trying to complete the hauling of his wheat crop. He killed two birds with one stone, by bringing a load of posts on his return trips. Friday evening the Criterion school house was the scene of a debate between the residents of Dist. 85 and those of Dist. 87. The question was "Resolved" that the income tax bill as voted upon at the election on Nov. 6th, will be an asset to the future prosperity of Oregon. Dist. 85 who had the negative side of the question won the debate. During the evening a joint Christmas tree was planned between Dist. 85 and 87 to be held at the latter's house. The community organized a literary society, of which Loris Bonney was elected president. Under the auspices of this society a debate has been announced for December 7th to be held at the Lakeview school house. The question is Should erford and children getting along splendidly. Assistant State Veterinarian Greene and County Agent Daigh have been here testing the local cows for tuberculosis. So far, none have been reported that have the dreaded disease. John Hall has taken a contract to fence the additional of Mrs. Betsworth and Bert Knight.
