Christmas Eve Radio

"Tune in on KGW, Christmas Eve" is the recommendation of the State Department of The American Legion. Commencing at 9PM, the legion's program on the spirit of Christmas will be broadcast over the Oregonian Station. An entertainment program of high order is promised with Cassius R. Peck of Portland, head of the legion's Americanism Commission in Oregon, delivering the legion's Yuletide message. Musical talent, some of Portland's finest, will appear on the program.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

An addition is being built on the north side of the W. J. Harris Cash Store which will be used for residence apartments, thereby giving the entire space of the main building to store room and display space. East Maupin now boasts of the largest store stock and business ever experienced on that side of the river.

Dr. Elwood has a radio installed at his office here.

Butler's have an excellent assortment of fresh high class candies. See their windows.

Big line of Christmas toys and Holiday goods on display at the Maupin Drug Store.

Disbrow's auto writer will save its cost in a few days and used properly will last a lifetime.—A. A. Disbrow Stevenson Wn.

Mrs. Eva Harpham and children returned home Saturday from a two months vacation and visit with relatives in the Valley. Geo Morris was hauling dirt Saturday from the old bank corner to his property on Dufur Avenue.

Fountain Pens, Priced for suitable gifts for Christmas—$1.00 up.—Maupin Drug Store.

No child learning to write should be without Disbrow's auto writer.—A. A. Disbrow Stevenson Wn.

The Times for a year would be an appreciated Christmas gift by your friends living away from here.

R. Johnson is hauling dirt from the old bank corner and the rear of the Harpham hotel property, improving his residence property occupied by A. Agidius.

Disbrow's auto writer is on sale at The Times office. A few of them are here in stock, while they last.

Word received from R. W. Richmond at Vernonia states that it is raining there and not much doing.

Mrs. H. R. Kaiser was a Dalles visitor this week.

Dave Donaldson sold the part of his property across the river to Jim Rusie and has built a temporary dwelling to be used for a woodshed later.

Portland Painless Dentist, 305 Second St., The Dalles, Oregon, over Linquist Jewelry Store, Rooms 1, 2, 3.

Gillette and Auto Strop Safety Razors $1.00 each.—Maupin Drug Store.

A few skirmishes of snow fell in Maupin Friday night which melted the next day. Frosty nights have been weather features this week.

Butler's Ford truck and Oldsmobile roadster may park side by side in their new home, now, without taking up needed storage room of the store basement, since the neat little garage was completed Tuesday.

Dad Coale went to Portland last Thursday night to dispose of a shipment of about $1700 worth of furs. Since his return home he has a number of exciting stories to tell again.

Tygh Valley

George Lofton our tonsorial artist was visiting relatives and friends in Hood River last week and says that most of the "peaches" down that way look like they were frost bitten.

Andy McCabe our popular blacksmith was visiting in The Dalles last week and ordered a chestnut tree which he will plant in front of his shop.

J. E. Peck highway engineer spent Sunday with his family in The Dalles.

Mrs. H. A. Muller, son Paul and daughter Regina were Dalles visitors Saturday taking in the football game while there.

The Highway department are erecting an office building in the auto park, and should a flood come as we experienced a year ago they will need a pilots license and considerable experience in the art of navigation before they reach the Columbia.

Miss Marie Kerr was taken to the hospital in The Dalles last week and operated on for appendicitis and at last reports was doing nicely.

Martin Wing visited his father in The Dalles hospital last week and reports him slowing improving.

Fred Miller was a rooster at The Dalles-Albany football game in The Dalles Saturday.

Ralph Chandler and family and Floyd Johnson and family spent Sunday visiting relatives at Wamic.

Guy Brittain and Claude Jones visited at the Marion Duncan home on Smock prairie Friday.

Lancaster and Baird, comedians, are billed for the I.O.O.F. hall at this place Friday Dec. 14 and their posters claim that it is the only show of its kind in the world.

Andee Kistner left here last week for the John Day country where he will try his luck at trapping beaver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McClain were business visitors in Maupin last Friday.

Forest and Burke have purchased the Crescent garage here which has been operated by F. E. McCorkle and the new firm took over the business this week. Mr. Forest is an expert mechanic having been with the Buick people in The Dalles for a number of years and comes highly recommended.
