A Happy, Prosperous New Year

Rousing Success

The community Christmas tree and entertainment given in the high school auditorium Monday evening was a great success in every way. About 200 people were present. Decorations were artistic and the program was well rendered. Treats were generously provided everyone, and local residents who were not privileged to be present were remembered by Santa's faithful representatives the next morning who made the trips around to homes.

This is the first attempt for anything of the kind Maupin as a community has undertaken for several years and those who have so unselfishly put forth so much effort are to be congratulated on their thorough success.

Mrs. E. W. Griffin went to Bend last night where she is now a patient in St. Charles hospital in care of Dr. Werner. Mrs. Griffin has been ill several days and her many friends here are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Morris-Kinzley

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday, December 19 at the U. B. parsonage in The Dalles when Miss Erma Morris and Marvin Z. Kinzley were united in marriage, Rev. E. L. Wriggle officiating, in the presence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Morris and Earl Young.

The bride is one of our favorite and accomplished native daughters, reared and educated in this section. The groom has been here the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Kinzley have the best wishes of the entire community. They will leave soon for a honeymoon trip and visit with relatives of the groom in Iowa.

While helping replace a dump car on the highway work across, the river, which had gone farther than its track, Saturday afternoon, A. D. Sprouse was pushed down into the dump pile, the car following him, bruising him quite painfully, necessitating a few days lay off from work.
