Arthur Muller is down with the measles.

G. H. Reddington is working in the B. D. Fraley garage at Maupin.

Dewey Lofton and Everett Kerr, who sometime ago went to California to spend the winter returned home Monday and say that sunny California does not look as good to them as Eastern. The mercury does not get as low there as here but it is damp and windy. They stated there was very little work and poor pay.

The volunteer fire company was called out last Saturday to quench a blaze which started from a defective flue in the roof of the R. W. McCorkle house which is occupied by Earl Rhodes. The blaze was discovered when it first started or undoubtedly the building and contents would have been consumed by the flames in short order.

Mrs. G. W. Reddington is visiting at the Mrs. G. H. Webb home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Wood of the Shady Brook country were shopping here Sunday.
