California

Where the Sun Shines Most of the Time and the very air seems to dispel worry and tone up the nerves.

One can pick oranges, climb mountains, dance at fine hotels, bathe in the ocean, visit old missions and play golf all in one day, if desired; or every day for months and each day something new.

4000 Miles of Paved Highways

The most wonderful system of hotels, apartment houses, cottages, bungalows and suites for the accommodation of tourists in all the world, and costs reasonable.

Representatives of the UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

will gladly furnish illustrated booklets giving complete information about the glorious playground of the West. Let them tell all about hotel rates, railroad fares, through car service.

Wamic News

The few warm days of the latter part of last week have melted the snow and destroyed the sleighing.

An early pioneer who visited his old stamping ground recently was J. L. Hanna who paid a visit to Dufur where he resided before the town was built. He witnessed the first load of lumber unloaded there.

L. J. Kelly was a Dalles visitor last week from Maupin.

Mrs. Emma Chastain returned Tuesday from Ione.

Marion Farlow spent last week in The Dalles.

Lon Wing has sold his place to Mrs. Lulu Kartis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodcock returned Tuesday from The Dalles after a three days' stay with Mrs. Woodcock's mother.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the words of sympathy and kind deeds of our friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement attendant on the death of our beloved husband, father and brother. Thoughts of those ministrations will be kept in sacred memory.

Mrs. E. J. Fischer and family,
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fischer

Tygh Valley

Our mayor is combining business with pleasure in Portland this week and if he does catch a cold he will be still well when he gets back.

A number of our young people were taking in the sights in the Wamic country Sunday.

The Logan Bros. construction camp is being moved from Butler Canyon to White River where they have taken an additional contract and which they will complete before resuming work in Butler Canyon.

Anyone contemplating a trip to sunny California to make a fortune will do well to first get a prospectus from Dewey Lofton.

Lee Jackson was host to a dancing party last Saturday evening, a number from here were in attendance and all reported a good time and plenty of eats.

C. B. Dahl of Portland was looking after business matters here last Saturday.

Arthur Muller is out after a seige of the measles.

Dan Gibbs left for his home at Dufur Sunday after having spent a month at the J. E. Morrow home on White River.

Clarence and Max Woodruff who are pursuing agriculture on Wamic flats left for The Dalles Sunday.

Fred Kennison was a Dufur business caller last Saturday.

When the women go to throwing their hats in the ring they surely be merciful enough to take the pins out first if they want to play fair.

Guy Reddington was visiting the home folks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sloan were Dalles visitors this week.

Smock News

We are having beautiful weather for the past week. The Chinook took away our 18 in. of snow almost overnight. Wheat is looking fine since the snow has melted off.

The postman has discontinued the use of his car since New Year's.

Callie Duncan trapped a coon of which he is making a pet.

Elwood and Elnora Smith went to The Dalles on Wednesday to enter school again after missing a month because of measles.

Their mother accompanied them.

Mrs. Ethel Duncan and Sula went to Wamic Tuesday to visit her father, J. R. Woodcock, and will remain a few weeks.

Claude Roberts is working on a woodsaw at Chas. Duncan's this week.

At the annual meeting of the White River Farm Loan Ass'n. held in Wamic on the 7th inst., J. C. Bradway and F. T. Felch were reelected president and vice president with F. Magill as secretary-treasurer. A district meeting will be held at The Dalles on the 23rd of January when bank officials will participate in the program. Delegates have been appointed from each association to meet with them.

A successful surprise was perpetrated on F. T. Felch on Saturday evening which was the occasion of his birthday when Mr. and Mrs. C. Duncan, Miss Sharp, C. N. Farlow, C. Morris, Mrs. L. Farlow and Ladelphia went in a body to his home and spent a pleasant evening playing 500.

Jesse Pitcher of Shaniko spent the week end with Wilbur Mulvany.
