The hills are green here and wild flowers are blooming.

We had a hard shower of rain Saturday afternoon.

Lucile Kennedy had an attack of tonsillitis last week. She is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kennedy stayed at the Jim Kennedy home while he and Mrs. Kennedy were away on their trip last week.

Irma Driver writes from California that she and the Misses Miller are packing oranges and that the weather is pretty hot.

Ox Team Passed Here

The citizens of Maupin enjoyed a novel sight Tuesday noon when Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berrang of Westchester, Connecticut, drove into town with their "prairie schooner" and yoke of oxen. Few living here had ever seen cattle driven to even a plow.

Their trip, manner of living and reasons for taking this route to Medford, Oregon, their point of destination, to visit a friend, is like a drama.

Mrs. Berrang stated they had

Mrs. Berrang explained that our Western pavements are more smooth than that found in the east, and that one-half mile's experience showed them that the oxen would not consent to the Columbia highway route, hence the necessity of humoring the stubborn cattle and favoring the people of Central Oregon with their acquaintance. Sacks had to be used on the front feet of the oxen to get them to return on the half mile of the highway to reach the dirt road.

Mr. and Mrs. Berrang have their conveyance equipped, acetylene lights and radio. Expenses of the trip are defrayed by sale of pictures of themselves and outfit. About eight, ten or twelve miles are realized a day. They will pass through Madras and Bend.

Lodge No. 209, Maupin, Oregon meets every Saturday night in I. O. O. F. hall. Visiting members always welcome.
