VOL. X.

MAUPIN, SOUTHERN WASCO COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1924

NO. 25

School Notes

The 8th grade final examination will be held on May 7 and 8. The pupils are beginning to realize that to pass they must study and for the first time this winter are burning midnight oil. They meet with Mrs. Buzan three evenings a week to review arithmetic, spelling, and language.

During the last three weeks Harold McDonald has lost his short trousers and 10 pounds, Jesse Crabtree has grown as thin as a rail, Earl Greene's nerves are so shattered he is unable to sleep at nights, but makes up for it in the morning and Florence Philmlee even gets to put on powder and rouge occasionally, so absorbed is she in her work. Lawrence Harpham is the only one who lives on placedly, he has actually added twenty pounds to his weight.

The eight grade are finishing their Oregon History, and are to be graded on a composition of it.

The advanced grade room had an attendance of 99 per cent this month. Those of the seventh and eighth grades on the Roll of Honor are: Earl Green, Jesse Crabtree, Harold McDonald, Florence Philmlee, Andrew Crabtree, Estel Stovall, Lloyd Talcott, Melvin Jory, Della Sprouse and Crystal Stuart.

The seventh grade have finished the physical maps of Oregon, and are now beginning their political maps and expect to finish them by next week and take a test on Oregon.

The sewing club in charge of Mrs. Kaiser is making good progress.

Ailene Greene of Miss Haugens room is out for awhile, she is chief cook for the road gang. The pupils in Miss Haugen's room are writing a newspaper on the Revolutionary War.

Supt. Gronewald was at the grade schools and talked about the clubs that have been organized for some time. The Poultry club, the Cooking club, the Garden club and the Sewing have been making good progress. The Poultry club has ten members, the officers are; Lawrence Harpham, president, Harold McDonald, vice president, and Earl Green secretary. Melvin Jory gave the club the proud name of "Scratchers."

The primary room has just completed the Ugly Duckling poster which is the prettiest poster made this year.

Those neither absent nor tardy from the primary room are; Charlie Pierce, Wendell Lindley, Dorothy Harpham, Arden Locke, Greath Turner, Laco Greene, Philip Stockton, LeRoy Miller, Genevive Allen, Thelma Morris, Irene Woodcock, Bernice Hollis, Jerry Buzan, Henry Harpham, Jimmie Agidius, Herbert Kramer and Ralph Kaiser.

The Track Meet will be held at Tygh Valley April 19th lasting all day. Grade events in the forenoon and the high school events in the afternoon. Maupin is taking up nearly every event. O. F. Renick is training
