Hunter's Recipe

Just take a little flour and Baking Powder, too, and enough water to wet it through and through, then roll it on a board with a bottle or a can, use a little grease when you put it in the pan keep the pan moving, handle it with care, give the pan a flip and turn it in the air, keep your fire going if there is any wood around keep your bread baking till you get it nice and brown, fry a little bacon, put on the coffee pot, sit down then and eat if that's all you've got. Don't think you're starving because you live on such far more than half the people haven't that much. Some folks live on ham and eggs, others cake and pie. R. C. Fulkerson

Psalm of Life (Parody)

Tell me not in mournful numbers Advertising is a dream,

For the business man who slumbers Has no chance to skim the cream.

Life is real! Life is earnest! Competition's something fierce

If for dividends thou yearnest, Learn to parry, thrust and tierce.

In the business field of battle Molycoddles have no place;

Be not dumb, driven cattle Be a live one in the race.

Lives of great men all remind us We can bring the bacon home,

And departing leave behind us Footprints on another's dome.

Let us then be up and doing,

Otherwise we may be done; Still achieving, still pursuing,

Advertise and get the mon.

If only we could bear one another's burdens as cheerfully as we bear another's faults.
