Local Changes

The Maupin Garage changed ownership this morning when a deal was closed, selling the tools and accessories to H. Wood, F. E. McCorkle and George Tillotson of Tygh Valley. The new owners are practical business men, well known in this section and will undoubtedly prove successful in their undertaking. B. D. Fraley recently became a partner in the Fraley Motor Co., at Oregon City with the agency in that territory and tributary country for the Star car. The family will move to that place at the close of school here. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Davis April 30.

NEWS ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. M. Flynn have transferred their lease of the Hotel Kelly to D. R. Williams of Portland, who took charge of the hotel last evening, and will bring his family here as soon as the Portland schools close. Mr. and Mrs. Flynn have during their years in the hotel kept it in a most satisfactory manner, and can justly feel they deserve a vacation trip, which they plan on taking to Michigan soon.

The Oregon Trunk road will put on an extra train out from Portland Saturday night for the convenience of the Anglers' Club. Sleeper cars will be distributed between Maupin and Kaskela.

Six carloads of stock are scheduled for shipment from the O. T. yards Saturday night for Portland: S. Walters 1, cattle; B. C. Nickerson 2, cattle; Wm. Driver, Wamic, 1, mixed stock; D. Woodsid 1, cattle; J. H. Eubanks 1, mixed stock.

Miss Edna Poulsen closed her school at Victor last Friday with a big picnic on White river. Miss Poulsen reports 58 visitors during the term. Certificates of award for being neither absent nor tardy were earned by Kenneth, Elton and Ida Snodgrass. Winners in scholarship, Avis Crabtree, year's average 96.2-7; Ida Snodgrass 93.2-5; Kenneth Snodgrass 93. Pupils to take the eighth grade examinations are Madgie Mott and Earl Snodgrass.

Lewie Bleakney of Bakeoven died in Portland at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Geo. McDonald and Bates Shattuck each had their residence painted during the past few days. F. C. Butler's garage has also received a coat of paint.

Local Rebekahs met last evening and initiated one new member, Miss Edna Poulsen and admitted two others by transfer, Mrs. Zella Buzan and Mrs. Alma Richmond. Twenty five members and four visitors were present. A delicious supper was enjoyed.

Chester Anderson formerly employed by the Moro Trading Co. arrived from Moro the first of the week and is employed at Butler's.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cooper visited with relatives in Dufur Sunday.

Mrs. Stackhouse and son Richard Stackhouse are over from Centerville, Wn., visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Harris.

M. M. Burtner was over from Dufur Saturday.

Mrs. McKay was here from Bend last week visiting her father W. J. Harris.

C. Y. Cooper of The Dalles was visiting his nephew, Rodney Cooper, here the last of the week.

R. L. Harris was thrown Monday from a horse, tearing the ligaments lose in one foot.

Mrs. F. D. Stuart enjoyed a visit Saturday and Sunday from her brother Dudley Pearcey and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Goetjen were guests at the Vern Tunison home Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Ober took her mother into The Dalles hospital Monday, returning home Tuesday accompanied by her brother, Roland Covert, and wife who remained a couple of days.

It will be impossible for the Shaniko seniors to give "Safety First" at Wamic as had been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Crabtree left Saturday night with the two smaller children for Astoria, hoping the lower altitude will improve little Clark's health. Mr. Crabtree's father accompanied them to help care for the child, while the former returns to his work here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fischer and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fischer are to leave in a few days to make the trip by auto to their former home in Epworth, Iowa.

Miss Faye Russell spent Saturday evening at Maupin and Wamic. She was accompanied by her uncle Earl Cunningham. —Chronicle.

Mothers of Maupin

You are cordially invited to attend Sunday school and church service Sunday May 11, beginning at 10 a. m., in honor of Mothers' Day. This day is one especially celebrated by all the Protestant churches of our land. So come and help to make it a day to be remembered. A short program will be rendered.
