Swift-Johnson

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 15th, at 2 o'clock when Miss Orlean Johnson became the bride of F. M. Swift in the presence of about fifty immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom, who assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. R. A. Weld at the home of the bride's parents.

An improvised altar was formed of palms and baskets of flowers, while gladiolas, canterbury bells and roses in graceful arrangement adorned the rooms. The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Engberg. Mrs. J. W. Erickson was matron of honor, and A. J. Swift, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The bride entered on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was charming in a gown of light brown cotton crepe, heavily beaded, and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. J. Nelson, Mrs. P. H. Haddan and Mrs. H. Phister, who were assisted by Misses Genevieve Swift and Edith Moberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Swift left at once for a motor trip to The Dalles and eastern Oregon and will return by way of Tillamook.—Astoria, Budget.
