RUPTURE

EXPERT COMING TO

The Dalles

Will Give Free Demonstration

Thursdy Friday Saturday
July 17, 18, 19

at

Dalles Hotel

from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Three Days Only

They Come Many Miles to See Him

On above date the noted rupture and hernia expert, C. F. Redlich, will give a free demonstration.

You will at once realize the difference between his highly efficient and modern appliances and your mail order inefficient and harmful elastic bandages or ill fitting steel or wire trusses with their obnoxious leg straps. These mostly make the rupture worse instead of better until at last it gets beyond control, whereas Mr. Redlich's special appliances will give you security and comfort for years to come, mainly because these effective devices are scientifically applied by an expert in person.

Recent, often curable cases and especially old, neglected painful ones, should promptly avail themselves of this opportunity for relief before work becomes impossible and eventually the surgeon's knife an urgent and immediate necessity.

Remember that demonstration is free on above date only, and that a visit may mean a great deal to you and those dependent on you.

urday, Mrs. Davis a guest at her son's home and the latter visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Widdell at their charming home in Glenhaven, a suburb of Portland. Going from Portland to Corvallis passing through Salem and other towns up the valley, traveling by stage to Corvallis where they were met at the stage station by their brother, Jimmie Patison. They remained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patison until Monday morning when Mrs. Davis resumed her journey to her home at Grants Pass, the writer returning to The Dalles by way of Portland where the stage made a stop of two hours, she again was joined by Mrs. Widdell and her guest, Miss Hilda Norval, who were at the stage station. The writer was enhanced by the charming scenery along the Columbia highway when frequent stops were made at stage stations. The stage was delayed by the blowout of a tire and did not reach The Dalles until 10 o'clock p. m. While in Corvallis Mr. and Mrs. Patison took their guests to the historic town of Philomath where they spent a pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ezra Wyatt and her daughter, Miss Nettie Wyatt, who were pioneer residents of this place, where Mr. Wyatt organized and led a Sunday School which was held at the old log house of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pratt on the creek, the present site now being the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks in Wamie. Mrs. Wyatt is eighty years old, but has retained her mental faculties and has a wonderful memory, and spoke of many interesting incidents of the early days here. She has a beautiful home in Philomath, shaded by native trees and clinging vines.
