Obituary

(Wapinitia)

Jackson William Rice was born May 9th, 1864, near Wheeling, West Virginia, departed this life July 21, 1924, at his home at Wapinitia. He attained the age of 60 years, 2 months and 14 days when a child he moved with his parents to Millbank, South Dakota. When a young man he came west to Seattle, later made his home at Oregon City, where he united in marriage to Miss Louisa Fenton. To this union were born the following children Mrs. Jessie Johnson of Colburn, Idaho, Chester Rice of Estacada, Oregon, and James LeRoy of Wapinitia. He is also survived by his wife, a sister Mrs. Emma Morton of Chehalis, Washington, a brother, Mr. Geo. Rice of Wapinitia and one grandchild, Florence Johnson.

For the last 25 years Mr. Rice and his family have made their home on their farm at Wapinitia. Since 1910 he has been a member of the United Brethren church of this place and a faithful attendant of all the services of the church until recent years when failing health made him less active. During the time of his affliction he was a patient sufferer and in the Christian's hope and fortitude he awaited the summons.

Evangeline Quick was born March 8th, 1864, at Seneca, Missouri; departed this life July 25, 1924, attaining the age of 70 years, 4 months and 17. In 1880 she was united in marriage with Martin V. Smith, a civil war veteran. To this union were born nine children. Her husband died in 1913. She is survived by the following children: Ben F. Smith of Bend, Oregon, Mrs. Aary Lewis of Wapinitia, Herman C. Smith of Tillamook, James and William Smith of Tygh Valley. A son Edward, died in the service of his country during the late war.

Mrs. Smith with her husband came west in 1899 and located in Wasco county in 1907, making her home on Happy Ridge west of Tygh valley where she continued to reside until the time of her death. Funeral services and interment were at the Hauser cemetery Sunday, July 27th, Rev. J. I. Parker of Wapinitia, officiating.
