

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Frank McCorkle was over from Tygh Monday.

Pat Connolly was in from the Bakeoven country Monday.

Expert watch repairing—quick service. Maupin Drug Store.

The heavy fog Monday morning portended cold weather approaching.

Close out in 50 cent box stationery at 35 cents. Maupin Drug Store.

Vern Tunnison, a Sour Dough Flat rancher, was in town on business Monday.

Jess Derthick was a visitor in The Dalles one day the latter part of last week.

John Judkins came in from the Flat Monday and transacted business during the day.

Leonard Weberg is hauling lumber to O. T. station from the Linn mill these days.

Sam Tambino, section boss on the O. T. at Nena, was in town on business Tuesday morning.

Chas. Crofoot and wife of Wamic were recent visitors at the Beckwith residence in Maupin.

Ben Cook drove up Saturday from Portland and remained in Maupin until Sunday morning.

Amos Johnson was in from Wamic Tuesday and reports a fine rain in his vicinity Monday night.

The Mt. Hood loop spur to Central Oregon is still open for travel, as only a light snow fell on the Cascade roof, which does not interfere with auto travel, while the road is in good condition.

Wm. McGill, who has been ill at Portland, returned to Wamic and is at the home of his son there.

E. W. Griffin and wife went to The Dalles Saturday evening and spent Sunday visiting with friends.

Lou B. Kelly, county commissioner, attended a meeting of the county court at The Dalles last week.

Jim Woodcock made another trip to Madras last Friday, delivering a carload of the famous Woodcock flour.

John Hillman, manager of The Dalles plant of the Union Oil company, was doing business in Maupin Monday.

W. H. Staats and wife took in the Armistice Day exercises at Dufur yesterday, going over Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wilbur Culp, who has been at Madras on a visit to her mother, returned to her Maupin home Saturday last.

A painter finished painting the roof of the new covering to the driveway at the Richmond service station Monday.

Ogden Elwood, son of our general doctor, was in Maupin Monday on business connected with the Union Oil company.

Gus Feldman, representing the Mt. Hood Soap company, interviewed local merchants regarding his goods Saturday.

Alvin Steyer, who formerly lived in Mapin, came up from Portland for a visit with "Buck" Harpham for a few days.

Mark Stuart made a slip with a meat saw Tuesday morning with the result that he nearly cut his left thumb off.

O. S. Walters, John Ayers and Alfred Weberg shipped a carload of fat porkers Monday to the Kenton yards, Portland.

The Maupin schools had vacation yesterday, the date being celebrated as marking the end World War—Armistice Day.

Lou McCoy and wife were in from Wamic Monday and visited with Mrs. McCoy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Harpham.

H. R. Kaiser, wife and children and Miss Jean Wilson went to The Dalles yesterday to take in the Armistice Day exercises.

A crew of volunteers painted the Legion hall exterior Monday and Tuesday and that structure looms up like a haystack in a fog.

Henry Miller, superintendent of the P. E. P. company's White River power plant, with his wife was in Maupin on business Monday.

Dr. Elwood was taken to Nena on the speeder early Tuesday morning to attend a Mexican, who is ill at the section house there.

Frank Creager is building an addition to his Deschutes avenue residence, and the neighbors wonder what's in the air around that man's place.

Jos. Kistner and wife were in from Tygh Monday. Mrs. Kistner will soon leave for Boise, Idaho, where she expects to spend the winter.

W. B. Kidder, who spent the past summer in the forest service in the neighborhood of Olallie Lake, returned to his home at Criterion Sunday.

Clifford McCorkle of this place, now a student at O. A. C., as a freshman in pharmacy, was recently chosen as one of the members of the Memorial Building staff of the Hesperian club of Independent Men's association.

Ray Bailey and wife spent the weekend with the family of F. D. Stuart, returning to their home at Mosier Monday. Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Stuart are sisters.

Tony Seifert was down from his Nena sheep ranch Monday and went to The Dalles, where he purchased a quarter section of isolated land adjoining his holdings.

The Maupin Electric Power company will install four more street lights on Deschutes avenue next week. With these burning there will be no excuse for running off the grade.

Floyd Richmond came up from Portland, where he is attending school, Saturday. While here he sold a Dodge touring car to Harry Weberg. He returned to Portland Sunday.

Oliver Resh and wife, who spent the last week in Portland, returned to Maupin Sunday. While in the big town the Resh's took in the stock show and visited with friends.

John O'Dell, of the Tumalum Lumber company of The Dalles, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. A. L. Anderson, a former Maupin resident, and Parm Applegate and wife, drove to Maupin Sunday and visited with the Renick and Kaiser families.

Batteries!

Hot Shots for the Flivver

Eveready Radio B

Batteries

Recharging - Repairing

Maupin Garage

Lincoln
Ford Fordson

Authorized Sales and Service

READ

The Maupin Times

and get all the home news

$1.50 a year

Job Printing

Best Kind - Lowest Prices

Your
Home
Groceryman

BUTLER'S

Your Home
Groceryman

NATIONAL

Canned Goods Week!

Nov. 9th to 21st

Inclusive-12 Days

A CASH SALE

Special prices on Canned Goods for the days mentioned above—Nov. 9th to 21st. We are the heaviest buyers in this line in southern Wasco County. You will save money by taking advantage of this sale. This sale is being conducted in every town in the United States during this week, being an annual event.

We have a few sacks of ONIONS left to sell at the special price of $2.50 a hundred. ONIONS ARE GOING UP!

COME IN, LOOK AROUND—WE HAVE GOODS FOR ALL