

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

E. H. Ashley was in our city from Tygh on Tuesday.

Milo Wood and wife, were visitors at The Dalles Monday.

Expert watch repairing—quick service. Maupin Drug Store.

Joe Graham of Wapinitia was a business caller in Maupin Tuesday.

Dee Talcott was in town from his Juniper Flat ranch on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Driver of Wamic were trading in Maupin Tuesday.

Close out in 50 cent box stationery at 35 cents. Maupin Drug Store.

J. F. Kramer sold an Atwater-Kent radio receiving set to Hugh Wood recently.

Solomon Hauser of Tygh Valley was in town Wednesday, trading at our stores.

Frank McCoy and wife from the Wapinitia section were Maupin visitors Tuesday.

R. H. DeCamp has been confined to the house with a bad cold several days this week.

George Rice is in town from Wapinitia, taking treatment for a jolt of erysipelas.

Ed. Kennedy and wife were in from Wamic Tuesday, shopping with our merchants.

Wm. Heckman has been absent from his road job the past week on account of sickness.

Hugh Wood and son, Stanley, after a week spent at Warm-springs, returned to Maupin Monday.

Henry Cramer, The Dalles cigar man, called on his Maupin customers Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Legion hall is much improved in appearance since it received an application of white paint.

Dr. Griffith of Dufur was called to Maupin last Saturday to attend Mrs. Ernest Doty, who is very ill.

L. A. Buchanan, salesman for Hudson & Gram company, Portland, called on our merchants Tuesday.

George McDonald and wife spent Sunday at the ranch of Mrs. McDonald's father, O. B. Derthick.

I have a party who wants to buy range land and another who wants a small dairy farm. H. L. Morris. 1-1f

Oscar Hammer, who has been at work on the T. B. Slusher ranch, is laying off on account of an attack of flu.

Lester Leach, from the office of the state Dairy and Food division, was in Maupin on official business last Friday.

Dr. Geo. Warmoth returned to Maupin Saturday evening, and left for his new home at Antelope Sunday morning.

Clarence Zigenhagen and wife, who have been visiting in Portland the past two weeks, returned to Maupin Tuesday.

W. R. Head came in from Shearers Bridge on Tuesday and when he returned took a load of 16 hogs and some lumber.

Patronize our Advertisers.

Ed. Brown, who has been employed at the Abbott sheep ranch, went to Pendleton Tuesday for a short visit with relatives.

Ray Taylor, the mighty hunter of The Dalles, recounted his late deer hunting experiences to a host of Maupin friends last Friday.

Jack Staats was under the weather several days of last week. He returned to his duties at the Wilson store Monday morning.

Bruce and Ollie Bothwell delivered two loads of fat hogs at the O. T. stockyards Saturday. The porkers were shipped to Portland that night.

C. Parsons, the man who believes in lighting the world, being representative of the Ohio Match company, was in Maupin on business Tuesday.

Just received a new assortment of watches—Elgin, Waltham, Hampden and other standard makes. Reasonable prices. Maupin Drug Store.

This office extends thanks to George Tillotson for a couple of fine "Honeydew" melons and a fine Hubbard squash, grown on George's Tygh Valley ranch.

Wm. McClure and wife, wife Guy Mott and Mrs. Stockton left on Tuesday for Fairview, near Portland, where Mr. McClure has secured work in a woolen mill.

Dave Donaldson is adding to his laurels as a fisherman. Monday he hooked and landed a Dolly Varden trout which dressed 4½ pounds.

Mrs. V. P. Seers of Tygh, was another from that section who recognized the advantages offered in merchandise by Maupin merchants. She was shopping here on Tuesday.

Miss S. Peterson, county health nurse, was in Maupin on business connected with her position last Friday. While in this section Miss Peterson made a call at the Victor school.

Mrs. Eda Wilson was in Maupin on Monday visiting with her sister, Mrs. Lucile Cantrell, teacher in our school. After a visit at Dufur Mrs. Wilson will return to her home at Bend.

Read the Maupin Times

John Stogsdl shipped a consignment of turkeys to The Dalles on Tuesday. Mr. Stogsdl has received an offer of 41 cents a pound for the remaining Thanksgiving birds of his flock.

Eldon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Allen, is confined to his bed with a severe illness. He lately suffered an attack of flu, which brought on a slight stroke of muscular paralysis of the hips, rendering him unable to walk.

Mrs. Eva Hammer, who was operated on for appendicitis at The Dalles hospital a few weeks ago, was brought to her home here by her father, Jos. Riggles, Sunday. Mrs. Hammer has fully recovered her health.

Fred Van Hoomison of the Richmond Plumbing and Heating company of Portland was conferring with the members of Maupin's school board last Saturday and investigating the installation of a heating plant at the school house.

Mr. A. L. Pugh, herson-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Galbreath, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Pugh's daughter, Mrs. James Chalmers this week. During the week the visitors called on relatives at Criterion. They live at Mosier.

While Hugh Wood was at Warm-springs last week he listened in on programs from all the coast cities, having taken an Atwater-

Kent Radio set with him. Mr. Wood said the waves came in clear and that the atmosphere was just right for receiving.

Phone your news to The Maupin Times.

Attention, Ford Owners!

NEW MAGNETO

RECHARGER

A fully charged magneto means easier starting, more pep and more miles to the gallon of gasoline.

Stops 90% Oil Pumping

TESTING FREE

Maupin Garage

Lincoln
Ford Fordson

Authorized Sales and Service

DANCE WITH THE THRONG AT The 23d Annual Ball

—OF THE—

Dufur Volunteer Fire Dept.

Thanksgiving Night

Nov. 26

Benefit of Dufur
Volunteer Fire Dept

Eck Rorick's 'Music
Masters' Playing

Legion Hall, Dufur, Ore.

BUTLER'S

GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET

Thanksgiving Specialties

Cranberries, Celery, Lettuce,
Cauliflower, Grape Fruit, Nuts,
Grapes, Apples, Bananas

And Everything Fresh to Make up a Big Thanksgiving Feed

ALWAYS AT YOUR SERVICE

Mask Ball

THE BIG TIME
of the SEASON

Thanksgiving
Eve, NOV.....

25

For $1 you are entitled to jump as high as your neighbors from the time you start until the finish of the dance, at LEGION HALL, MAUPIN, OREGON

Music by The Snappy Four of Dufur

We know the eats will be good. The Ladies' Auxiliary will see that everyone gets his fill at a certain amount per head. Started by the American Legion, will stop when the music runs down. Remember the date, Thanksgiving Eve, November 25.