

News of Interest From the Schools

The Christmas boxes were filled Friday in accordance with the plan of the Junior Red Cross work and mailed Friday to San Francisco, whence they will be taken without charge by an army transport to the children of Guam.

The high school boys are holding regular basketball practice in an attempt to develop a team which will be eligible to join the state league.

Stanley Wood returned to school Tuesday morning from Wapinitia. We are all glad to have him back.

The following pupils of the 7th and 8th grades received 90 per cent or higher in spelling for the past week: Ivan Donaldson, Ada Knighton, Vernon Sprouse, Rex Stuart, Mable Weberg, Aliene Greene, Fannie Derthick, Doris Kelly, Gladys Martin, and Lelah Weberg.

This is a busy week for the students, as the examinations for the second term of the semester will be given before the Thanksgiving vacation.

Dave Donaldson, veteran fisherman of Maupin, presented to the Maupin High School last Thursday a fine specimen of a Dolly Varden trout, which weighed 3½ lbs. and was about 25 inches long. The girl who guessed to the nearest its actual weight won the trophy. Helen Weberg guessed within a few ounces of the correct weight.

The Monday following he presented the 7th and 8th grades and the high school girls with a larger and more beautiful fish than the first. It was about 26½ inches long and weighed over 4½ lbs. It was won by Lelah Weberg. The head of this fish is to be put on the Maupin bridge to advertise the Deschutes as a fishing stream.

VISIT YOUR SCHOOL

November 16-22 is American Education Week. If you are an American, you should be visiting your school; if you are not an American you should be, any way.

RECIPE

Begin by cutting out the knock. Walk right in as you would at home; Find a chair or sit on a block; Ask questions; make suggestions; and never mind That we work while we talk. —This recipe may be used at all times.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

The Seventh and Eight grades began American Education Week with an outline of studies on the Constitution of the United States on patriotism, and on forest conservation.

Following a careful study of the Preamble, a contest was held to list the most points answering the question, "What blessings of liberty do we enjoy under the protection of the government of America?"

The highest number of points, thirteen, was made by Ada Knighton. The best single point was given by Nina Matthews: "Not only will we have a good government, but our children and their children will enjoy the same protection."

The problem was raised and fairly discussed: "In what condition would we quickly find ourselves if there ceased to be a government in our country?"

Citizens and sojourners are invited to attend the further development of this class. This is also your concern.

A high school conference is to be held at the University of Oregon on December 4th and 5th. Letters of invitation have been sent to all high schools in Oregon, and about a hundred and twenty-five delegates are expected to attend. A number of leading educators of the state will have a place on the program. There will be discussions of high school problems and addresses on special subjects. The Maupin high school is planning to send at least one delegate, but no one has been selected yet.

WAPINITIA NEWS

WAPINITIA CHURCH SERVICE Sunday School 10:00 A. M. Mrs. Josephine, Floyd, Supt. Preaching 11:00 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., by Rev. W. A. Mershon, pastor.

Midweek prayer meeting 7:00 p. m. Thursdays.

Katie Graham, who has been at Portland for a week, returned to her home here Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. P. W. Lloyd, primary teacher, was hostess to the pupils of her department at a party Tuesday of last week.

Dee Woodside escorted a carload of cattle to Portland Saturday last. The shipment belonged to Emil Hackler, Lewis Walters, Isom West, U. S. Enderby and Mr. Woodside.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair motored to Cherryville the latter part of last week, going by way of the Mt. Hood road.

E. A. Hartman returned from Portland Monday. Mrs. Hartman remained in the big city under the care of her physician.

Vivian Barzee was taken to Dr. Griffith at Dufur last week and upon her return was compelled to take to her bed. Dr. Griffith called on her Saturday and under his treatment Miss Vivian is on the way to recovery.

Mrs. J. Powell, who recently apparently recovered from a severe illness, suffered a relapse. At this writing she is somewhat improved.

Miss Dorothy Doan and Crystal Hartman spent last Saturday night with Miss Anna West.

Interest in the revival meetings have resulted in a number of conversions. The devil has been defeated in many battles. Rev. Mershon certainly has preached the old-time gospel. His subject on Monday night was "The Second Coming of Christ." The meetings are still running and really make an old-time revival.

Eminent Divine Explains the Modern Application of "Golden Rule."

Golden Rule Sunday is December 6. On that day people of more than fifty countries will partake of a simple meal, will read about the orphan children of the Near East and then make such a gift as they would have some one make if their children were among the destitute in the Bible lands. "The essential thing about Golden Rule Sunday is not the day on which it is observed, nor the eating of an orphanage meal," states Rev. W. B. Hinson, Pastor of the East Side Baptist church of Portland and Vice Chairman of the Northwest Regional Committee of Near East Relief. "The essential thing is that we should each for ourselves answer the question: 'What would I have some one else do if my children were hungry and some one had my income here?'" "Golden Rule Sunday sets a terrifically high standard of giving. Parents worthy of the name will go hungry any time that their children might be fed. No sacrifice is too great if it is for their children. Jesus demands the same standard of sacrifice for others as we have for our own. It is drastic, revolutionary but imperative. 'Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I command you?' he cries. 'The one who would observe Golden Rule Sunday should, in his imagination, see his children deprived of their natural protectors, scattered like sheep having no shepherd, hiding by day from their enemies, gathering what food they can by night, exposed to the bitter cold of winter or the burning sun of summer, claiming refuge at an American orphanage only to be told there is no room. 'He should see old Hargue struggling through snows, an orphan grandchild by each hand, with the baby on her back, who finds at night that that baby has frozen to death. 'He should see twelve year old Charlamus struggling along with other deportees bearing his six year old brother to safety, carrying his body, even after he thought the boy was dead. He must see in these two boys not only the symbols of almost countless thousands of children, but he must see in them his own boys. 'There is little use to attempt to visualize the vast number, 35,000 orphans, now in American care and the equal or greater number whose helplessness is a claim on American charity, but for whom no provision can be made. When we see our own children comfortable and happy we can think of the same number homeless exiles in the Near East. 'There are few spiritual exercises more fruitful than this, and men and women who honestly attempt to apply the Golden Rule to these other children will not measure their gifts by pennies, but by dollars, by fives and tens and hundreds and thousands. 'All things therefore whatsoever you would that men should do to you (or to your children if left destitute) do ye to them likewise.'"

New Refugee Problem in Syria. Beirut, Syria.—The Near East Relief will distribute 50,000 pounds of refugee clothing here, to assist in caring for 20,000 Christian villagers rendered homeless by the rebellion of the Moslem Druses against the French government. "All Americans have been ordered to leave Damascus, where 2,500 persons were killed in the fighting of the past fortnight. Thousands of refugees are pouring into Beirut.

October 31st there were 30,000 Armenian refugees in Beirut, crowded into an "unspeakable" camp, and refugees were arriving from Damascus at the rate of 4,000 daily. The refugees were sheltered in houses constructed of oil tins and "the crowding was terrible," as many as nine people living in a single small room, cooking, eating and sleeping in this tiny quarter. The sanitary arrangements were totally inadequate and water scarce. Many of the refugees were ill, with no medicine and the children were pale and sickly.

LOOK OUT FOR SELF POISONING

Neglect of the liver results in self-poisoning. Not so quickly, perhaps, but just as surely as if you drank poison out of a bottle. If your liver is not doing its work of helping digestion, eliminating waste from the bowels and purifying the blood, you will always be troubled with sick headaches, nausea, biliousness, bad breath, gas, sour stomach, or constipation.

Cleanse and tone your liver! Put your system in condition so you feel your very best again! Try just a spoonful of D. H. S. Thacher's excellent Liver and Blood Syrup after the next few meals and notice the quick improvement in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel—the return of strength, vigor and energy. You will be completely satisfied; otherwise there will be no cost.
