The new Dalles telephone directories were delivered to Maupin telephone patrons Tuesday by "Bill" Beckwith of the local exchange. The Maupin books will be out as soon as we can collect ad copy and set up the type for the patrons numbers.

Budget Meeting Changed

The date set for the meeting of the city budget committee, as published in last week's notice, has been changed to Saturday, December 26, instead of the 28th as advertised. This change was made so that the budget might be passed on and certified to the county assessor by the first of January. All those who object to the budget as outlined in the notice are expected to be at the meeting and there and then voice their objections.

X-mas Window Displays

The merchants of Maupin have arranged most attractive window displays. Shattucks' four windows are resplendent with reminders of the holiday season, showing toys, sporting goods and things to wear among the many other articles displayed. Wilson's store looms up like the proverbial light house, he showing a line of Christmas novelties which takes in the full scope of holiday gifts. Butler's grocery windows show a nice line of candies, nuts and fruits, all arranged in a most tasteful manner, while the drug store displays samples of nearly all lines usually carried by that kind of a store. Prices are right at each place.

CRITERION HAPPENINGS

Arthur Appling spent Sunday with Charles Albright at Victor.

Many Criterion people attended the card party given by the Rebekah ladies at Maupin last Saturday evening. Mrs. D. L. Rutherford carried off one of the prizes. All say they had a jolly time and a fine supper.

D. P. Appling and family returned last week from a visit in Washington and Portland.

Joe Kramer and wife were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dues.

Mrs. Vere Devoe was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt.

Henry Nelson has been on the sick list the past week, but is better at this writing.

The Criterion people were glad to hear that Maupin won the pictures for her schools. Of course we can't help thinking that our "Criterion Day" at Maupin went a long way toward helping get those prizes. Come on Maupin, let us hear from you through the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrling were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Appling.

Margaret Appling was absent from school Monday on account of a bad cold.

Ira has returned from Shaniko and will take up his school work at the Maupin Hi.

Will "Reader" please continue correspondence from Criterion? We'll be pleased to send paper, envelopes and stamps, also the paper, for the trouble and to pay postage on "copy."—Editor The Times.
