Ben Cook has been in Maupin the last few days, coming up from Fairview, where he now lives.

H. M. Barnum passed through town Tuesday. He was on his way to the eastern section after a horse.

Richard Welch, automobile man of Wamic, was laying in a supply of auto repairs in Maupin Tuesday.

Wm. Woodcock was in from Wamic the latter part of last week, visiting with his brothers and parents.

Carl Powell accompanied Floyd Richmond to Portland Sunday, going with the idea of securing employment.

Mrs. John Donaldson was taken to a hospital at The Dalles Monday. There she will undergo an operation.

J. W. Davidson, Flat rancher, drove to town Tuesday in a brand new Oldsmobile sedan, lately purchased.

Drs. Elwood and Stovall accompanied by Mrs. Stovall and L. B. Kelly, went to The Dalles yesterday morning.

George Morris and wife drove to Bend Saturday for a short visit with friends, returning to Maupin Monday morning.

L. C. Henneghan and wife have returned to their Maupin home after several weeks spent at Sunnyside, Washington.

Floyd Richmond drove up from Portland, where he is attending school, Thursday and visited with his parents until Sunday.

Holy Mass will be celebrated in Sacred Heart church Christmas Day, December 25th at 10:00 a. m. All are cordially invited.

Since the rains fell and warm weather prevailed, the grass has taken a start on the hills, providing fine feed for range stock.

Mrs. J. H. Kistner, who has been visiting a daughter in Boise, Idaho, the past six weeks, has returned to her home at Tygh Valley.

R. P. Newland, chief of the maintenance corps of The Dalles-California highway, with his wife, was a Maupin visitor Saturday.

Mrs. R. Geiser held a meeting of the Degree of Honor at The Dalles today. She will return this evening to spend Christmas at home.

Miss Verla Lewis was a weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Tillotson, and husband, last week, coming from her home at Wapinitia.

Jess Derthick and mother, Mrs. S. E. Derthick, spent Sunday and Monday with the family of Jess's daughter, Mrs. Arthur Morris, on the Flat.

Fall plowing has been halted on the Flat by freezing weather. Most of the ranchers were pretty well along, so the freeze will not put them behind in that work.

Marshal impounded one of the horses which have been raising hob with Maupin laws. If the owner does not claim the animal within five days it will be sold.

A Maxwell car bearing a South Dakota licence, was wrecked on the White River grade Tuesday morning. Two men in the car escaped injury. They were on their way to Spokane.

Frank Tillotson, the father of George Tillotson of this city, and Gabe Stakely and wife, all of Tygh, were Sunday guests at the home of their son and nephew in Maupin.

Quite a bunch of yearling cattle were driven through Maupin last Sunday. They were taken to the O. T. stockyards, where they were corralled while awaiting shipment to the Portland yards.

Word reaches us of the death of Carl Ober's mother, which occurred at Gearheart on Sunday. We have been unable to get in touch with Mr. Ober, consequently a write up of deceased will have to go until next week.

Picked Up About Town

About the best piece of work some men can do on Saturday is to take a good bath.

The city council will soon be busy with the annual budget. We hope the members will make it so strong that even a court decision would fail to budge it.

A civil engineer was over the highway east and south of Maupin last week. He was "picking up levels" for the Pacific Power company. One man remarked that the levels must be old ones and the visitor probably would supply new ones for the road crews.

"I see where they are recommending mud baths as beautifiers," comments Ralph Kaiser, "but mud baths never seem to have done much for the turtle."

"Maybe the reason some men want to fight when it is insinuated they sprung from monkeys," says Lester Kelly, "is because it is the truth."

Andy Mann says that he can supply a kind of face paint for women's faces that he will warrant will not "sleep off."

The old-fashioned dance held last Saturday night must have appealed to old-timers—and quite a few young-timers as well. The management of the Legion deposited one of the biggest bunches of coin derived from the hop, ever banked from a dance of the order, on Monday.

Bootleggers must not do a great business in this section. At a recent function held here gentlemen of that ilk were trying to sell their goods to each other, with no takers.

The question of "when is a man drunk?" has given away to the more puzzling question of "when is a woman clothed?"

We've often wondered what college students find to do after the football season closes.

Oliver Resh says most people get in debt because they think "wants" is synonymous with "needs"

NO TRESPASSING

Notice is hereby given that I will prosecute all persons trespassing on my place, known as "The Horned Toad" ranch. All fishermen, hunters, and sheep and cattle drivers are warned to keep off. Dated December 17, 1925. AL. D. KENNEDY 6-t4

Eleven Years Ago
From The Times, Dec. 16, '14

Make The Times An X-Mas Gift

While the gift-giving season is on why not remember The Times with the amount of your subscription? We are sure all our readers are satisfied with the paper, otherwise more than one hundred of them would not have paid up and others subscribed for the paper. We are trying to give Maupin the best paper ever published here, and as it takes money to "make the mare go," your arrears and a year in advance will be appreciated.

Don't take a chance on your weak battery freezing. Bring it in for recharging. A fully charged battery never

Gus Derthick Wears Star

Gus I. Derthick is now the official arrester for Maupin, he having been appointed city marshal by Mayor Shattuck and confirmed by the council at the last meeting of that body. Gus will make a good officer and it behooves wrongdoers to watch their step, for Gus will not stand for law infractions none at all.

Who Got the Weenies?

Someone who evidently had a taste for weenies helped himself to about six pounds of that delectable table "delicacy" at the Legion Hall last Saturday night. When the supper things had been cleared away there was that amount of "hot dog" remaining. A couple of the house committee went to the supper room to wrap up the sausages with the idea of returning them to the meat market. They looked around, but no "dogs" were in evidence, so they arrived at the conclusion that some hungry fellow had appropriated them. No doubt the stolen stuffers sufficed as the piece de resistance for a Sunday dinner.
