LOCAL AND PERSONAL

L. H. Farlow enjoyed a snowy ride to The Dalles Sunday.

Harrison Young was in from his Wapinitia ranch on Monday.

Potted Bulbs all ready to grow, for sale at Maupin Drug Store.

J. B. Lewis and bride were Christmas shopping in Maupin on Tuesday.

J. H. Kistner and wife were in from Tygh Monday, doing Christmas shopping.

John McCorkle braved the snow and came in from his Flat ranch Monday.

Geo. Heitz and H. M. Barnum were in from the Shady Brook section on Monday.

Clifford McCorkle, student at O. A. C., is home for the holidays, having arrived Saturday.

Guy Britton and son, Jack, visited friends in Maupin, coming from Tygh Valley, Tuesday.

Jimmy Harpham was at The Dalles last week, driving home during the snow storm Sunday.

James Chalmers and wife were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs.
L. C. Henneghan on Sunday last.

A. J. Conroy, one of the prosperous ranchers of the Shaniko section, was in Maupin Saturday.

Mr. Conroy is another who appreciates the efforts of The Times publishers to give the people of this section a real newspaper.

House plants, the kinds that give the touch of spring to the home in winter. Maupin Drug Store.

Misses Crystal Hartman and Anna West were in Maupin from Wapinitia on a shopping trip Tuesday.

A. M. Greene treated the top of his barn at the Riverside orchard ranch to a new shingle roof last Friday.

Linc. Harpham hob-nobbed with old friends at The Dalles a couple of days last week, returning home Friday.

Hugh Knight left for Wash-ougal, Wash. Sunday and will spend the holidays with his parents at that place.

Claude Wilson will spend the Christmas holiday with friends at Portland, having gone to the big city on Monday.

Mrs. M. G. Todd went to The Dalles yesterday and had a new cast placed on the arm she had broken about two months since.

Dr. L. C. Stovall and wife were among those who attended the funeral of the late H. F. Woodcock at The Dalles last Thursday.

Peter Kirsch and family left for Salem yesterday, and will spend the holidays there and at Stayton, visiting with relatives.

A. E. Troutman and family have gone to Portland, where they will enjoy the Christmas season with friends and relatives.

Ben Smith of Fort Rock, Deschutes county, was a guest at the H. D. Lewis home at Wap-initia several days the first of the week.

Carl and Coy Dragoo and wife were guests at the Frank Dyer home last week, leaving for their home at Eugene Sunday morning.

Miss Lorraine Stovall, who is attending the state normal at Monmouth, came home Friday night and will remain until after the holidays.

The Maupin Drug Store sold a Hoffman piano to O. S. Walters Friday, and the instrument will serve as a Christmas gift to the Walters family.

The snow storm of Sunday broke down several telephone wires leading from Tygh. A repair man from that point spliced five breaks on Monday.

Leonard Chastain and wife came to town Tuesday from their Bakeoven ranch and looked over the Christmas displays with the idea of Christmas gifts.

Marshal Derthick auctioned off a stray horse Saturday. Dolph Goetjen bought it for a single plunk and now has another mouth to feed during the winter.

The Shady Brook Grange hall walls are being covered with wall board this week which will make the hall both more comfortable and attractive to the eye.

Mr. Fox, who is installing the heating plant at the high school building, is a World-War veteran and attended the high jinx at Legion hall last Saturday night.

Butler has installed a new idea in both his stores—a printing arrangement which stamps his advertisement in the center of each strip of wrapping paper torn from the roll.

The road grader went off the road on the hill Sunday and had to remain there until the grader truck from the Criterion section came and pulled it to the road again.

Keep in mind the second annual ball of the Maupin Volunteer fire department, to be given at Legion hall on the evening of Thursday, December 31. It will be the best of the season.

Miss Marjorie Tillotson, who is attending O. A. C., came up from Corvallis Sunday and visited with her brother, Geo. Tillotson, and wife a couple of days, then went to her home at Tygh Valley, where she will spend the holidays.

While Clyde Bonney was on his home from Shaniko Saturday his car went "dead" just east of town. The service car from the Maupin garage hauled his auto to town and workmen at the garage soon had it in shape to travel on to Tygh.

Lloyd McCoy had a spill in his auto near Wapinitia Monday evening. He was on his way home from Maupin and in making a turn in the road his car turned turtle, the intense fog making it impossible for him to see where he was driving.

The Legion dance at the hall tomorrow night will be all that the soldier boys say. The Broadway Novelty orchestra, which will play for the dance, has been here before and created a most favorable impression. Besides the dance the Legion auxiliary promises something new in the way of eats.

Eleven Years Ago

From The Times, Dec. 23, '14

J. O. Winfree and family of Pecos City, Texas, arrived Tuesday to visit I. N. Winfree, the former's father. They may locate in Criterion.

Born, to Brinton Slushur and wife of Dufur, a 13-pound girl, on Wednesday of last week.

John Ward was in from Wap-initia this week and disposed of his wheat at $1.10 a bushel.

L. H. Simson, a wireless operator for the Marconi system, is visiting his friend, Floyd Kelly, during the holidays.

Mrs. Frank Stuart is visiting her parents at Mosier. Frank contemplates getting Christmas dinner there, too.

People from all over Wasco county shopped here this week for Christmas.

W. H. Williams has a new hack for his stage line to Flanagan to carry parcel post and Christmas presents.

W. H. Staats & Co. have for their customers a very attractive calendar, picturing "The Land Mark," in harmonizing colors.

Preparation is under way for a Christmas entertainment to be given at the mission here. A program of recitation and song will be given by the Indian children, and there will be a Christmas tree, also.—Sinnasho correspondence.

Joe Kuckup has just completed the erection of a barn 30x40 and is now enlarging his house. Joe is one of the most prosperous Indians on the reservation.—
