Picked Up About Town

Bill Beckwith says he can't "squirt" tobacco juice as far as he used to since the dentist extracted 27 teeth for him at one sitting lately.

Billy Heckman says the average Maupin man prays to be delivered from temptation, but while doing so he keeps an eye open to see if temptation is taking her powder puff from her stocking.

Presiding Elder Coffey failed to appear for his scheduled meetings here Sunday. Maybe he was grounded in his name.

"This is a progressive age," says George Tillotson. "The auto advertised a year ago as 'absolutely perfect' is now greatly improved."

Ralph Kaiser says along about this time of the year some fellows wonder what ever become of the old-time firm of Tom & Jerry?

"A mail carrier can be as honest as the day is long," says Carl Pratt, "but you can't make a woman believe he doesn't read all the postal cards he has to handle."

The Oregon Trunk officials recognize the merit of Maupin's claim for compensation for water used by that line since our volunteer fire department saved its depot building from total destruction by fire.

Portland merchants recognize the value of the "Town Crier" telling of their wares over KGW. The Times will do as well by Maupin merchants. Try its columns and be convinced.

Joe A. Graham received word of the death of his aunt, which occurred at Three Sisters, and went to that place Saturday night, returning on Monday.

O. L. Paquett went to Portland Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. West returned Tuesday from their Christmas visit at Dufur.

Clyde Flinn and wife have returned to their government work in the vicinity of Klamath Falls.

Del McCoy and family have returned to Klamath Falls, being accompanied by Miss Mable Lewis.

School sessions were resumed Monday, after the Christmas vacation.

Basketball Games

The Maupin high school basket tossers will contest with the Metolius school team in the local gym on Friday evening. The local boys have been doing great work in practice and on Monday night took into camp the fast Tygh team. The Metolius players are a fast bunch, but we all expect to see them humbled by the locals in the coming game.

The American Legion team is in a position to make the best of them—hustle to win. Consistent practice has put each individual player on edge. On Monday night next the Legionaires will play the Wamic team at Tygh. That the outcome will be a win for the Maupin team goes without saying. Many from here have signified a desire to see the game and it is quite possible a crowd will go with the team from Maupin.

Old Horses Wanted For Coyote Bait

C. Hight, predatory animal hunter, Wapinitia, desires old horses for coyote bait. Those having such and care to donate them, will please communicate with Mr. Hight at Wapinitia.
