

R. E. Wilson Co.

PHONE MAIN 271

We are offering you a 30-day credit service and low prices. We are well pleased with the response we are getting on these quality staple merchandise offerings we are making.

- Weinies, per lb. 18c
- Rock Creek Creamery Butter lb. 53c
- Gem Nut Margerine 29c
- Glen Willis Tomatoes Number 2¹/₂ 15c
- 12-Quart Dairy Pails 43c
- Campbell's Tom. Soup 8c
- Shred Wheat Biscuit 12c
- Palace Car Peaches No. 2¹/₂ tin 28c
- Standard String Beans 17c
- Onion Sets, lb. 11c
- Mop Handles 19c
- Pancake Flour, pkg. 27c

C. E. Tunison and wife from the Bakeoven country, were shopping in this city Tuesday.

Leonard Farlow drove to Hood River Sunday for a short visit with his uncle, Marion Farlow.

John Miller, who lives near White River on the Flat, was doing business in this city Monday.

Newton G. Hedin was in town Saturday doing shopping for himself and some of his neighbors.

Dr. Stovall went to The Dalles Monday having been summoned as juror for the present term of court.

O. P. Weberg has been confined to the house the past several days with an attack of influenza.

Misses Crystal Hartman and Anna West were shopping in Maupin Saturday. They live at Wapinitia.

Mrs. Stovall accompanied her husband to The Dalles Monday, the doctor having been summoned for jury duty.

Welby A. Dane of Wapinitia was in Maupin Saturday while on his way to The Dalles to report as juror.

The Wapinitia Cattlemen's association met in annual meeting in the school house at that place Saturday last.

Lee Kemp, an old friend of H. R. Kaiser, was in town Saturday in the interest of a San Francisco fishing tackle house.

Mrs. J. F. Kramer is numbered among those who are suffering with flu, having been confined to her bed several days.

Harry Lewis and H. M. Dodge, two Wapinitia Plains ranchers, were transacting business in Maupin Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Lester Crofoot is taking care of the Turner home while Mrs. Turner is employed at the postoffice during Frank's illness.

Mrs. Geo. Tillotson went to Wapinitia Monday for the purpose of making a better acquaintance with her new baby brothers.

Hugh Wood and Sol. Hauser drove to Shaniko and back Thursday. Hugh says the rain fell in sheets while they were on the road.

John McCorkle states that his wheat has a better stand this season than he has ever seen since coming to southern Wasco county.

Four inches of snow was on the ground at one time Saturday on the upper Wapinitia Plains. Rain continued to fall and the snow came with it and piled up to the depth mentioned.

Konrad Hauser, the sheep king of Tygh, was transacting business in Maupin Tuesday morning. He was on his way to Shaniko.

J. H. Miller and wife came up from White River electric plant, where Mr. Miller is employed, and spent a few hours in Maupin on Tuesday.

Ye editor made a hurried business trip to Dufur Sunday, being conveyed there and back by Lee Kemp, fishing tackle salesman of Portland.

Bert Crofoot, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at The Colville, Washington, hospital, is reported as being on the gain.

Clarence Zigenhagen painted the oil tanks and gas receptacle at the Richmond service station Tuesday—red, white and blue colors being used.

Farmers from the Wapinitia plains say the soil is wet down to a depth of fully 18 inches, about four inches deeper than at this time last year.

Miss Elizabeth Rutherford of Criterion, who is attending school in Maupin, remained in town over Sunday as the guest of Mrs. James Chalmers.

Miss Regina Muller of Tygh left Thursday morning for Vancouver, B. C., and expects to spend several months in the northern city with her sister.

Marshal Derthick warns motorists that the proper place to turn is at street intersections. Those who make wrong turns are apt to be reminded of their error by the marshal.

Mrs. Dolph Goetjen went to The Dalles Tuesday for the purpose of having an operation performed in the hope it will alleviate a trouble which has been bothering her for some time.

The recent rains have changed the usually clear water of the Deschutes to a color resembling that of the Missouri. Water is rising and if the rains continue the river will soon be a raging torrent.

S. B. Meiser and wife arrived at Tygh Thursday for a short visit with G. C. Stakely and family. Miss Ercell Stakely, formerly of Tygh, accompanied them. Mr. Meiser was a visitor in Maupin Saturday.

If anyone thinks to break into this print shop and make way with the dollar marks from the type cases, he had better take warning before hand. We now have a bull dog, a present from Clarence Zigenhagen.

J. M. Conklin, president of the Maupin State Bank, arrived from Portland Monday and will remain a few days. Mr. Conklin and wife lately returned from a trip to Berkeley California where they went to visit their daughter.

Tony Connolly, who has been in California since the holidays, returned to Maupin the latter part of last week. While away Mr. Connolly took in some races at the Tia Juana, Mexico, track, and also visited in various cities of the Golden State.

Bates Shattuck is nursing a badly sprained knee. Somehow Bates took on a spurt of ambition and proceeded to split some wood Monday evening. He climbed to the top of the pile, which began to fall over, and Bates, in order to save his neck, jumped, badly spraining his right knee.

Sol Hauser lately returned from a 10-day visit to his ranch near Ellensburg, Washington.

Numbers 8 and 9 Copper Boilers

$4.95

14 and 16 Size White and White Oval and Rouded DISH PANS

98c

Regular $1.25 and $1.50 values

Shattuck Bros.

KING

King Neutrodyne RADIO RECEIVERS

BATTERIES 75c RECHARGED

RICHMOND & SON

At Richmond Service Station

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Charles Pierce was in town from Wapinitia Tuesday.

Fred May of Wapinitia was a Maupin visitor on Monday.

Ralph Kaiser and wife drove to The Dalles Tuesday morning.

H. M. Greene is employed these days pruning his orchard.

Donald Morrison was in from the Two Springs section Tuesday.

Jesse Cox and wife of Wapinitia were trading in Maupin Monday.

Harry Walstrom, Dufur garage man, was in Maupin on business Saturday.

John Sinclair and wife of Wapinitia were shopping in Maupin last Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Kistner of Tygh was shopping in Maupin Tuesday morning.

C. C. Davis and family were in from Ridgeway on a shopping trip Tuesday.

Hugh Wood made a business trip to Portland Sunday, returning on Tuesday.

"Kooney" Hauser drove in from Tygh on Monday on a merchandising trip.

George Tillotson and wife motored to The Dalles Friday morning on a business trip.

"Buck" Harpham spent Sunday with his parents on the ranch near The Dalles.

Wm. Sturgis, wife and children were in from their Wapinitia Plains ranch Saturday.

Lew McCoy and wife were Sunday guests of Hank Harpham, coming in from Wapinitia.

Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. George Mallatt of Bakeoven were in Maupin on business Tuesday.

OLIVER PLOW EXTRAS and PARTS

Have Arrived

Get Ready Now For Spring Plowing

See the No. 95 Gang Plow

Without donbt the best horse-drawn plow made

We are also glad to get parts for other makes of plows for which we do not stock repairs

Place your order now and be ready when the soil is

R. E. Wilson Co.

Sol reports Ellensburg as taking on new life. The high-line irrigation canal is being completed by the government, and this, with the report that the Northern Pacific is to build a direct line to the Kittitas county metropolis, from Lind, is making things hum.

For Sale

At Maupin Warehouse Co. Oats, millfeed, wheat, corn cracked or whole, alfalfa hay. If in need of any kind of feed, patronize your own business. If we haven't got it we will order it for you. A farmers layout. Geo. L. Morris, Mgr. 14-t1

Sold Another Piano

Dr. Stovall is proving to be a good piano salesman. Wednesday of last week he disposed of a fine instrument to Ernest Conifer and from now on the neighbors of that enterprising rancher will be regaled by the latest music rendered on a high grade player piano.

Valentines—all descriptions—1 cent, 2 cents, 5 and 10 cents, especially for school trade. Maupin Drug Store.

HORSES FOR SALE—Also one Duroc Jersey boar. S. N. Morris, phone 5F2. 13-t4*

COMPARE

These With Mail Order

Prices:

Fresh Stock Tires

HEAVY OVERSIZE CORDS

- 30x3¹/₂ $11.35
- 31x4 18.00
- 32x4 19.20
- 33x4 20.20
- 32x4¹/₂ 23.70

SPECIAL

- 30x3 Casings $ 8.00
- 29x4:40 Balloons 14.20

Wood-Tillotson Co.