

YOU ARE ENTITLED! TO KNOW THE FACTS!

20,000,000 motor vehicles now travel the American highways.

50,000,000 Americans ride in these cars every day in the year.

Safety for this vast army of travelers is a national issue, and where safety is involved plain speaking is a public duty.

It is high time the public realized—as experts have long realized—that automobile bodies should be made of steel—not of wood or any other fragile material.

Indeed, it is one of the mysteries of this usually progressive industry that the all steel body is not already in universal use.

It will be before long. Public opinion will demand it—as it now demands that railway sleeping cars be all steel.

For even a child knows that steel is stronger than wood—that steel will not splinter or burn—and that all steel bodies will stand up under impacts that would crush ordinary bodies to bits.

That is why Dodge Brothers pioneered in introducing the the all steel body—pioneered again recently, in improving and perfecting it—pioneer, now, in urging its adoption by every automobile builder in the world.

The issue is plain—

Manufacturers must build safely if the automobile industry is to hold its present high place in public usefulness and esteem.

And the all steel body—as exemplified in Dodge Brothers Motor Car—is the greatest single advance in motoring safety made in the last fifteen years.

The car will continue to be a "four." No reasoning buyer will be distracted from the issue of QUALITY by mere CYLINDER propaganda.

SMOCK AND VICINITY

Beautiful sunshiny days.

March came in like a lamb; let's hope it ends the same way.

Farmers are busy fixing fences and getting ready for plowing.

Mrs. Ethel Duncan has been ill with an attack of pneumonia, but is much better at this writing. Dr. Elwood attended her.

Mrs. Isha Duncan was with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Duncan, Sunday.

J. E. Woodecock returned from Bakeoven with a team of unbroken horses last week, and is busy breaking them to work.

O. Farlow and wife returned to their homestead on the Deschutes last Monday.

S. G. Ledford and E. Wolfe made a business trip to Maupin last Friday.

J. C. Bradway attended the "squirrel" meeting at Wamic Friday.

Evangelist Tiffany is holding interesting meetings at Wamic and will continue through the week.

Mrs. E. H. Disbrow and daughters have been victims of the flu, but are getting around again.

Mrs. Guy Brittain of Tygh came over Sunday to take care of her mother, Mrs. Marion Duncan.

Edw. Disbrow made a short stay with his mother last week, coming Thursday and returning Friday. He is employed on the Roberts ranch, near The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy were people from Wamic who attended church here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon moved to a farm east of Tygh last week.

Rev. Tiffany preached at the Smock church last Sunday afternoon. He will deliver another sermon next Sunday, March 7, at 3:00 p. m. Everybody come out and hear him.

Vern Edmonds and family came up from Wamic last Sunday and attended church.

Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Wolfe greatly added to the interest in the church services last Sunday, they bringing their instruments with them. We hope they will come again.

Picked Up About Town

"If history is to be depended upon," comments Bob Bell, then Nero must have been the first one to stage an old-fashioned fiddling contest."

Hank Harpham says the reason a woman knows there won't be any dishwashing in heaven is because it wouldn't be heaven if there was.

Bob Wilson says that many a sweet life has been spoiled by a surreptitious treatment of castor oil.

Dave Donaldson says that trout caught this time of the year usually are wormy. No doubt they are if worms are used as bait.

The Maupin woman who said that her pies were tough because she used Woodecock flour in their making, must have had great confidence in her culinary attributes.

Bill Staats says "the way to appreciate a wife is to have her go away for a few weeks leaving her husband to do the chores and his own cooking."

"The young bride's idea of back-breaking work," says Leonard Farlow, "is having to manipulate a can-opener when her husband isn't around to do it for her."

Jim Chalmers says that having to listen to some men's troubles is "as exasperating as the inability to tell a stupefying radio announcer your opinion of his brand of twaddle."

Clarence Ziggenhagen says that raising dogs makes one think of a peeling camp—so much bark around the place.

Art Fargher says that some of the bootleggers around Maupin must be in cahoots with the undertaker—the bootlegger furnishes the poison and the undertaker the coffin.
