

R. E. Wilson Co.

PHONE MAIN 271

BY CAREFUL BUYING on the lowest market, no account losses, 30-day terms, which mean quick money turn-over, enable us to offer you these money-saving values. Our idea of service is to pass our savings to you—to give personally our entire time, attention and energy to our one store.

White King Washing Powder

44c

Assorted Cookies, per pound

24c

Three-pound box of Crackers

44c

Heinz's Tomato Soup, can for

11c

Tall can of Salmon for only

16c

Golden West Coffee, per pound

57c

Crema Oil Toilet Soap, per bar

7c

Baby Scratch, 10-pound package

43c

Prices Good 'til April 29

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Matt Duffy of The Dalles was a Maupin visitor Monday.

Mark Stuart transacted business at The Dalles yesterday.

Earnest Doughty made a trip to The Dalles and back Saturday last.

We still have it—fishing tackle that gets the fish. Maupin Drug Store.

Frank McCorkle of Tygh Valley mingled with Maupin people Tuesday.

"Get your tackle today." Shattuck has the best assortment—ask anybody. 23-tf

FOUND—Mud cap from Packard car. Owner may have same by calling at this office and paying for this ad.

P. S. McCorkle, whose habitat is Happy Ridge, was transacting business in Maupin Tuesday.

Nearly all Maupin attended the track meet at the Tygh Valley fair ground last Saturday.

H. M. Barnum was a Shady Brook rancher who transacted business in Maupin on Tuesday.

Thomas Flanagan came up from Portland Monday and attended to cleaning up his east side property.

George Tillotson is convalescing from his third attack of flu. He was in bed all of last week, but is now on the mend.

W. O. Elliott and wife of Prineville were in Maupin Monday night, they being on their way home from Portland.

Nitrocole for floor. Can be walked on half an hour after applying. For sale at Maupin Drug Store.

Mrs. Ollie Weberg, who has been fighting at attack of flu for the past several days, is able to be up, although very weak.

Floyd Richmond, with his mother, accompanied Harry Weberg to Portland Saturday. They returned late Sunday night.

G. W. Mallatt of Shaniko was transacting business in Maupin last Saturday. The Times office acknowledges a pleasant call.

S. A. (Brick) McLeod came to town from Fargher's sheep ranch Monday for the purpose of getting rid of the smell of sheep.

FOR SALE—One large belt-driven hay press. Can be operated by six horse power gas engine, or larger. Otto Herrling. 24-tf

G. L. Harpham came over from his Stevens, Washington, ranch and looked after his Maupin business a few days the first of the week.

Buy $1.00 worth of Parke-Davis & Co.'s toilet articles and get a 50-cent package free. Good for 30 days only. Maupin Drug Store.

LOST—Auto bumper on Tygh grade. Finder please bring same to this office and a reward will be paid for its return. C. B. Dahl.

Leonard Farlow, accompanied by Miss Florence Mathews, drove to Fossil and back Sunday. The trip covered a little better than 300 miles.

Jim Chalmers holds the championship as fisherman. Sunday he sat at one hole in the Deschutes and pulled out 29 large reddsides.

The road crew leveled up the pavement on Deschutes avenue Monday morning, making our main thoroughfare look more presentable.

Vernie Roberts, one of the old standbys of this section, as well as one of the earliest settlers, was in Maupin from Juniper Flat Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. Gill and little daughters are at the home of Mrs. Gill's mother, Mrs. W. H. Staats, and will remain for a week. They live at Portland.

Carl Hartwig, The Dalles florist, is now making Maupin in the interest of Williams' cleaning parlors. He comes here each Tuesday and Friday.

H. C. Betzel, proprietor of the Pilot Butte pharmacy at Bend, called on his friend, Dr. Lawrence Stovall, Tuesday while on his way home from Portland.

Howard Dixon, accompanied by Miss Lenore Davidson, both of Hood River, spent Sunday in Maupin, visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Davidson, at Hotel Kelly.

The aurora borealis visible last Wednesday night, was a most entrancing sight. The wave of light extended clear across the sky and lightened the earth brightly.

Dr. W. A. Short has been in Maupin the past ten days taking care of the teeth of a great many of our people. Dr. Short is located at Dufur and will visit this place periodically during the summer.

Joe Kramer went fishing Sunday. He hooked a big one, then lost confidence in his fishing ability, so called upon Jim Chalmers to land the catch. Better practice in Bill Staats' fish pond, Joe.

Preaching services will be held hereafter as follows: Every other Sunday in the morning and the alternate Sundays in the evening. On Sunday next the U. B. Sabbath school will be organized. All young people, and their elders as well, are cordially invited to attend both services and Sabbath school.

Old Ironsides

The grammar grades are justly pleased with the fine print of C. R. Patterson's "Old Ironsides," purchased by members donating to the Constitution fund, and appropriately framed from receipts of the March 13th play.

Picked Up About Town

"One thing in favor of the man who marries these days," says Billy Heckman, is "the styles enable him to know pretty well before hand what he is getting."

Otto Herrling says: It's a rare candidate who doesn't possess a few remedies for the ills of the farmer."

"Sometimes when you look at what father is," says Jim Chalmers, "you can't hardly blame some women for preferring an auto to a baby."

"Sir Oliver Lodge says the human body is a nuisance. He must have gotten his in the way of a passing flivver," is the way Bob Wilson puts it.

"There's an auto now for every five persons in the country but they are not all six-passenger cars," says Leonard Farlow.

Oliver Resh says "some husbands look like their wives had married them on a bet—and lost the bet."

Verne Fischer remarks that "it is a wise thing to know how to act in company, but it's a lot more important to know how to act in an emergency."

The Times man went to Badger creek after fish last Sunday. He didn't mind the climb down a couple of thousand feet, but will never again attempt to climb up that distance.

Jack Staats says the life of the average married athlete is one continued round of activity—base ball in the daytime and baby 'bawl' at night.

Doc Elwood's dog "Jiggs" is versatile—when he is not chasing cats he is tying into two dogs at one time. His ears show the result of his last encounter with two dogs, each outweighing him many pounds.

Eleven Years Ago

From The Times Apr. 23, '15

Dr. Wilbur Hasting of Cleveland, Ohio, an oil and coal expert of 30 years' experience, who is making a tour of the west in the interest of eastern capital with whom he is associated, investigated the property of the Beavis-May Oil company at Dufur last week.

Dr. N. Welter will preach his farewell sermon this Sunday, April 25. He and his family will soon leave to make their residence in the Willamette Valley.

Roy Slusher returned from Dufur yesterday and brought

Auto Tragedies Increase as Other Travel Is Made Safer

AUTOS STILL CLIMBING HILL OF DEATH

WHILE railroad tragedies and street car accidents in the United States have gradually been diminishing in the last ten years, the annual toll exacted by automobile casualties is steadily mounting, says the Stewart-Warner Safety Council for the prevention of automobile accidents. Railroad accidents have been cut more than one-third, or from 12,520 in 1913 to 8,078 in 1923, the latest government figures available. Street car fatalities also have been cut down one-third or from 3,000 in 1913 to 2,000 ten years later. Automobile deaths, on the other hand, have increased over five-fold. Against the 3,822 deaths in 1913 we have 16,462 in 1923, and the score is growing each year.

Care, more care and still more care, is the solution of this national problem. The pedestrian must be always on the alert and as spry as a kangaroo, if he is to keep out of harm's way, and the driver for his part must never relax his vigilance for a moment when human lives are at his mercy.

the report of eight coyotes being killed by he and his brothers on their place near the town of Dufur.

E. M. Hartman was on our streets a few days ago. He had been to The Dalles with his son, Lincoln, who was taken to The Dalles some time ago for treatment.

The Wamic ball boys played the Maupin team last Sunday and "took the money." The score stood 14 to 9, and notwithstanding the big score the game was a very interesting one.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown and party motored to the Deschutes Sunday and spent the day angling for the famous Deschutes trout.

May 5th will be the time for the celebration at The Dalles of opening of the Celilo canal. Great preparations are being made to take care of the large crowd which will be present from Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Moad and H. L. Emmons, Jr. spent Sunday at Two Springs on an outing and fishing trip.

The baseball boys have been putting the ground near the school house into shape for their Sunday battle. They have erected a grand stand and will have everything in good shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fargher have been spending a few days with their two sons, Clarence and Art, on their ranch a few miles above here.

Mr. Heckman had the misfortune to fall from a short railroad trestle Wednesday. Two of his ribs were dislocated and he was otherwise severely bruised.

AUTOMOBILE and General Machine Work

Cylinder Grinding, General Machine Work, Truing Crankshafts, Making Pistons and Rings, Bearings, All Sizes Made to Order. Sheet Metal Workers

Complete Line of Parts for All Makes of Cars Full Line of Labers Springs

Electric and Oxy-Acetylene WELDING

READ & GALLOWAY

609 East Second Street Phone 400

THE DALLES, ORE Phone 383J

MICKIE SAYS—

SOME OF OUR SUBSCRIBERS SEND THE PAPER AS A PRESENT TO FRIENDS LIVING ELSEWHERE BECAUSE ITS A WELCOME GIFT, IT LASTS FOR A YEAR, AND STILL IT AINT AN EXPENSIVE GIFT

Spot Service Sta.

Tygh Valley Ore. FOR Gas, Oils, Tires Accessories

We trade and sell New and Used

FORD CARS

Cash or Terms Service Our Motto Paul Muller Proprietor

Unexcelled For Baking all kinds of Bread Cakes Pastries

Woodcock Bros. Milling Co.

MAUPIN,

OREGON