ONE WAY TO BOOST

Don't get the impression that because Maupin isn't as big as New York or Chicago that it is not worth boosting to a stranger. When an auto tourists hits town and you have occasion to talk to him, speak a word for the schools and churches and good living conditions in this community, and if you get out away from home this spring or summer, do the same thing. The man you are talking to may not think any more of your town, but he'll think more of you for boosting it. Nothing gives a neighborhood greater favor in the eyes of a stranger than the knowledge that the people who are living in it are satisfied and are not "a set of knockers." You have an opportunity every now and then to do something for your home town by speaking a few words in its favor. Speak them, and keep on speaking them, and even if the stranger is not impressed you'll be surprised to find how quickly you will be wondering why you haven't been putting in a good word instead of letting the other fellow do all the talking about his town.

SEEKING A CURE

Congress is nearing adjournment, but before doing so its members apparently realized that they have overlooked the farmer, and that it never is a good idea to go back and face the home folks without some kind of an alibi. So cooperative marketing is being discussed, along with propositions to take up surplus crops each season or to regulate acreage. All of which may look good in theory, but little of it has worked out in practice so far, and the farmer is still 25 percent worse off so far as the price of commodities are concerned than he has been in years. It strikes us that if congress wants to do something for the farmer it should try closing up the gap between what he gets for his products and what he has to pay for the things necessary to produce them. If there is to be price regulation, then regulate the price of the things the farmer has to buy as well as the things he has to sell.

One of the hardest things for us to do is to believe that the Maupin man who picks us up for a ride isn't going to run for an office a little later on.

We read recently that potatoes grow wild in Chile. And potatoe prices are growing wild up here.

Eleven Years Ago

From The Times May 7, '15

Plans have been made whereby the Maupin State Bank will be one of the depositories for county funds. People in southern Wasco county can now pay their taxes at this bank and thus save some expense for themselves, besides doing a good turn to an institution in our midst.

Gus Derthick has filed on a 320-acre homestead, and from appearances we don't think he intends to bach while living there.

With this issue of The Times a change in management is taking place. A. L. Barnes retiring and being succeeded by Miss J. E. Disbrow. The new publisher will try to make the paper the same newsy sheet it has been the last three months, and worthy of your support.

The money order receipts for April at the Maupin postoffice amounted to $1311.92, a gain of $424.50 over April of last year.

Mr. Kurtz shipped two carloads of hogs to North Portland Saturday and is shipping two more this week.

L. C. Wilhelm has been quite sick for several days from erysipelas. He has been unable to be out of the house.

Mr. Hank Harpham received a letter yesterday stating that his wife is improving very rapidly and went through the operation at The Dalles hospital very nicely.

A. Locke, the O. T. agent at this place, is taking a layoff for two weeks while he and his family are arranging for farm life on their homestead.

The shearing crew finished shearing the Mace and Fargher sheep Monday and left Tuesday for the Ed. Mays ranch, where they will clip the wool from about 1200 head. The same crew will shear the T. A. Connolly sheep after leaving the Mavs ranch.

Caught Fish, Then Lost 'Em

Newton G. Hedin went to Clear lake Monday. He caught a string of nine fine trout. He then decided to change locations, leaving his catch in the car. When he returned he was surprised to find his fish had taken wings. Some fish hungry fellow, evidently too tired to angle for himself, had helped himself to Newt's trout.

Brief Synopsis Of Patterson's Platform

Reduce taxes by reducing cost of Government.

Every dollar in taxes paid to return the taxpayer a dollar in service.

Make Governor budget-making official.

Receipts for Government land less expenses belong to the people of Oregon.

Place penitentiary under Board of Control. Make Board of Control the Parole Board. Fewer pardons.

Enforcement of prohibition by officials who believe in enforcing the law.

Hasten construction of Roosevelt highway.

Conservative road construction; adjust automobile licenses; oppose peddlers' license applying to traveling salesmen.

Adequate provision for retiring bonds. Issue no tax free bonds.

Fish and Game Commission function for people and not as political machines.

Play fair with ex-service men.

Maintain high standard of public schools and institutions of higher learning.

ALFRED E. CLARK

OF PORTLAND

Candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator

Read a few of many unsolicited press comments—

The Portland Daily News, speaking of the Senatorial candidates said: "If we were entirely businesslike in the conduct of our public affairs, intent only upon getting the best man available for the money, there is no doubt whom we would employ."

"We would employ a man of proved achievement, proved honesty, proved fearlessness and trustworthiness. We would employ a big man."

"And that man is Alfred E. Clark of Portland."—The Toledo Leader: "Mr. Clark is a man who has had a world of experience, has the age, the dignity and the ability to represent the people of this great state in the national law making body as they should be represented."—Eastern Clackamas News: "There are few men in the state who are as well qualified for Senator as Mr. Clark."—The Condon Times: His (Mr. Clark's), knowledge of public affairs, his prominence as a lawyer and his reputation as a speaker will prove valuable assets should the people desire to send him to Washington. Paid Adv. Alfred E. Clark for United States Senator Campaign Committee.

Insurance By Mail Hazard To Insured

The following from the state insurance commissioner is a warning to all seeking "cheap" insurance:

The Union National Life Insurance Company of Kansas City, Kansas, is circularizing this state soliciting accident insurance.

Inasmuch as the one purchasing a policy from this company does not have the protection of this department, or of any of the laws of Oregon, it is appropriate that the citizens should be informed regarding this class of insurance.

There are two primary causes for mail order insurance: First, to avoid the restrictions placed upon licensed companies for the protection of the policyholders.

Should a claim against one of these policies be contested, the policy-holder would be forced to go to the courts of Kansas for recourse, as the courts of Oregon would be closed to him.

In purchasing insurance of any kind it is advisable to patronize only those companies which are licensed to do business in this state, as these companies are under the supervision of the insurance department and are amenable to all the laws of the state of Oregon.
